*3. Samuel Bundy, born 4 Febraury 1676/7. On 5 October 1696 he married Tamar Simons, born 4 October 1680, daughter of Jeremiah Simons. See below.

4. William Bundy, Jr., born about 1667; died 28 July 1700. Many studies fail to list this William as the son of the original William and Elizabeth Bundy. From Mr. Raymond A. Winslow, Jr., I have the following information. "On November 1694, William Bundy, a cordwinder, sold land to Timothy Cleare (Perquimans County Deeds, Book A:93). In his will, Timothy Cleare (husband to Mary, daughter of William and Elizabeth) bequeathed the land he bought from his brother-in-law to William Bundy. William Bundy had a land grant in Pasquotank in 1694. Hathaway (Vol.I, 443) mentions that a William Bundy died in Pasquotank on 28 July 1700.[26] William is named in Caleb's will as a brother.

5. Hannah Bundy, born about 1671; married on 22 November 1692 to John Larance, born 14 March 1667, son of William and Rachael (Welch) Larance.

Child of William Bundy and his second wife, Mary Scott Pierce:

Sarah Bundy, born January 23, 1685. She was disowned by Perquimans Monthly Meeting (Quaker meeting) on 11-2-1711 for "marrying out of unity", i.e., for marrying a non-Quaker, Francis Pettitt of Chowan County, North Carolina.

It is interesting to note that my grandfather, Joseph Henley Bundy was the great, great, great, great, greatgrandson of William Bundy and my grandmother, Junietta Winslow was the great, great, great, great, great, great granddaughter of William Bundy. Junietta Winslow's descent comes through Sarah Cleare (Clare) White via Abigail White Winslow.

SECOND GENERATION

Samuel Bundy, born 4 February 1676/7, married 10-5-1696 at the house of Henry White, to Tamar Simons, daughter of Jeremiah Simons. Tamar was born October 4, 1680 and died on 17 March 1719/20. Permission to marry Ann Nicholson, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Charles) Nicholson, was granted by Perquimans Monthly Meeting on 3-3-1721. They married on May 17, 1721. She made her will in 1744. He died 3-14-1740,

"The Past is the Land of Missing Persons and it is only by a combination of diligence and good fortune that anyone not monumentally remembered can be found. As for those in America who wandered beyond the utmost borders of wilderness, neither their lives nor their resting place were too often noticed or conveniemtly marked. Oblivion marked their footsteps and ate the last one. Silent trees of the Forest finally closed over their heads. They vanished in a green nowhere, leaving a crumbling cabin, a few stones arranged in the dancing basin of a spring, a cellar hole in the hillside with an apple tree or a rose bush to scatter petals in the Springtime as though they remembered something lovely, tragic and a secret that none else knew."

JAMES WELCH of Bath. (N.CAROLINA)

Prior to the discussion of this family, it seems pertinent that the SWANN Family be brought into the picture, as their lives and migrations parallel those of JAMES WELCH of Bath, and indeed hark back to the area where JAMES WELCH of Chowan lived.

I. Col. Samuel[3] Swann (Col. Thomas[2] William[1]) (1653-1707) Was the Collector of Customs, Roanoke, N.C. In 1673 he m-1 Sarah Drummond of Gov. William Drummond who was appointed 1664 by the Lord Proprietors, as Governor of Albemarle County. Samuel Swann was Justice, Sheriff, Major and Burgess 1677/1693 in Virginia. At the latter date he removed to NC.
He m-2 Elizabeth Lillington (1679-1707) of Alexander and widow of John Fendall (Col. John Sandal ?)
Col. Samuel Swann buried, his plantation, Perquimans Co.

1. William Swann

2. Thomas Swann married Elizabeth. His Will 1733 Pasquotank Co. NC. Extr: Edward Mosely who married Ann Lillington sister of Mrs. Samuel Swann.
Referring back to Mattacomack Creek, Bonners Creek and Slocums Creek in Chowan Co. William Branch sold land in this area to Edward Mosely on 10.31.1717 and deed was Wss. by Thomas & Elizabeth Swann.
   A. Samuel Swann married Mary Vail
   B. William Swann
   C. Rebecca Swann married William Simpson
   D. Elizabeth Swann.

By his second marriage, Col. Samuel Swann had-

3. Henry Swann
4. Elizabeth Swann (1699-) m. Lt.Col. John Baptista Ashe
Removed c1729 to the Cape Fear region.
5. Sarah Swann (1701-) married Frederick Jones who was Ch.Justice Supreme Ct. of NC.
6. Samuel Swann Jr, (1704-1771) married his cousin Jane, daughter of Sarah Swann & Frederick Jones. They moved to the Cape Fear region c1729. Samuel Jr. was a Member of the Assembly 1727 and Speaker 1743-1762. His plantation "Ye Oaks". A Perquimans Co. Deed (DB-C-4) 11.28. 1729 names him "of New Hanover, Bath Co. Gent." Perquimans Co. (DB-C-88) 10.24.1732 Samuel Swann, Jr. of New Hanover, sells land on the Perquimans River, "where my father Major Samuel Swann dwelt adjng. Timothy Clare".
7. John Swann (1707-)

Ref: John B. Boddie. Historical Southern Families II-232.

The foregoing tends to substanciate the thesis that Timothy Clare who married a daughter of RACHAEL (WELCH) LAWRENCE, and JAMES WELCH of B and JAMES WELCH of Chowan were possibly related- both being in the age groups.

ALBEMARLE PRECINCT. This precinct was discontinued in 1663 and in 1670 the Counties of Chowan, Pasquotank, Perquimans and Currituck were formed. Later these counties were further split- Bertie was formed in 1722 from Chowan and Bath (which was later discontinued in 1739); Tyrell (1729) and Dare (1870) from Currituck and Tyrell; Camden (1777 from Pasquotank); Gates 1779 from Chowan and Hertford; Hertford (1759 from Bertie, Chowan and Northampton; Bertie in 1741 was split into Edgecomb from which was split Granville in 1746.

The Albemarle area north of the Sound was settled by Virginians during the Administration of Gov. Sir William Blake (1641-52) as Governor of Virginia.

There were five towns in Albemarle in 1729. Bath, established 1705, New Berne in 1710 by Swiss Colonists, Edenton, Beaufort, and Brunswick. In additionto this list should be added the "port of entry-"Little River" the first town in Perquimans County, at the mouth of the Little River.

THOMAS WELCH of PASQUOTANK COUNTY.

The early courts were held in residences, with a presiding Judge and four justices who were qualified as justices by owning 300ac. of land. The first Court in Perquimans County was held in the residence of Thomas Harris, whose relict married 9.14.1694 Thomas White of Perquimans County. It is believed that while the Court in 1694 was held in Perquimans County, that litigants and trials were heard from residents of Pasquotank County, if not additional counties in the area.

Court was held 9.25.1694 at the house of Thomas White (see above) Perquimans County. The record shows-

> "THOMAS WELCH, indentured servant to Mr. Joseph Commander, prayed for freedom, which was granted" (Winslow. pp.10)(Col.& State Records NC I-412)

While the Court was held in Perquimans County, Joseph Commander was a resident of Pasquotank County who married 12.22.1694 Dorothy Tooke whose family came from Surry and Isle of Wight Counties,Va.

A Census taken in 1695 lists a THOMAS WELCH as No.178 and living between Harvey's Creek and Flatty Creek, Pasquotank Pct. (Ray. Lost Tribes pp.574) while Hathaway (III-253) lists an undated list of Tithables as returned by Francis Delamere, covering the area from "the east side of Harvey's Creek to the west side of Flatty Creek"

Joseph Commander- 3
THOMAS WELCH- 5, Negros 5.

This latter list covers some 46 tithables in the district enumerated and in which THOMAS WELCH had the largest number of negros.

Geographical research indicates this area as being on the east shore of the Little River, just across from Durants Neck in Pasquotank County.

On 4.11.1704 THOMAS WELCH was a Witness in the Perquimans Precinct as noted by Hathaway (I-609).

In Perquimans County (DB-B-183) on 1.10.1724 a THOMAS WALSH was a Witness. (See Deeds under Timothy Clare Line later on.) While there is no assurance that this WALSH is the same as the THOMAS WELCH noted previously, it offers some slight significance because of the Timothy Clare connection.

While we have no further record of this THOMAS WELCH, the census in 1695 would indicate a family of five- father, mother and three children. Indentured servants were usually allowed grants of land by the proprietors at the end of their indenture and it is probable that THOMAS WELCH was granted such land, however the fact that he is credited with 5 slaves within a year of his release from indenture (proximity lends credence to the identification) causes some doubts as to how this situation came about.

No further identifiable record of THOMAS WELCH.

RACHAEL WELSH who married William Lawrence.

RACHAEL WELSH (p1640-a1674) married c1655 William Larance (Lawrence) who d. p6.1.1668. According to I. of W. records his family moved from Nansemond Co. Va. to Perquimans Co. NC c1680-85/ (Possibly prior to this date cf. marriage of their daughter Elizabeth c1671 to Caleb Calloway, resident of Perquimns Co.)

Berkeley Parish Records show that on 6.1.1668 RACHAEL LAWRENCE, widow, married Samuel Pricklove (Pretlow, Pritlow etc)(c1631/2-4.20.1692). He was in Perquimans Pct. p1661 and had an unrecorded grant from Sir. William Berkeley for land adjng. George Durant whose deed dated 8.4.1661 was from the King of the Yeopim Indians. (Perq. DB-A-375) and was Witnessed by Caleb Calloway.

George Durant "hath seated a plantation" (on Durants Neck) just south of the present town of New Hope (DB-A-376)(3.13.1662) Wss: George Catchmany (Catchmaid etc). On 9.5.1663 Berkeley granted 250ac. to John Harvey adjng. Roger Williams and on the same date 700ac. to John Jenkins bounded on the south by the Sound and on the north by the Perquimans River and the west by Thomas Jarvis. George Catchmany also a deed from Berkeley dated 4.1.1663 (DB-F-193).

William Perry Johnson, noted genealogist of North Carolina and a descendant of the Lawrence line, writes that-

"Robert Lawrence jr., of the Isle of Wight and Nansemond Family, received grant of land in NC 9.25.1663.

"On 3.25.1707/8 he gave his age as 69 and said that 47 years ago (1660-61) he seated a Plantation on the south side of the Chowan River on which he lived for 7 years and that he was well acquainted with the boundary lines of these Rivers".

John Bennett Boddie- Historical Southern Families II-181 and in his 17th.Century Isle of Wight pp.489 devotes some few pages to this Lawrence family. Boddie states that Robert[4] and John[4] Lawrence, brothers, (Robert[3] Sir John[2] Thomas[1] of Middlesex, a Goldsmith) both received grants on the"West side of the Chowan River" identical in size- 625ac. adjng. each other and that both brothers returned to Virginia where they died.

Corbitt in his"Formation of the North Carolina Counties" relates the Lawrence plantation "seating" in 1661 and states that Samuel Pricklove, Caleb Calloway, George Catchmaid, John Harvey, Thomas Jarvis, George Durant et. al. also settled there. This account is open to doubt, as many of the these settlers were residents of Perquimans County as noted on the preceeding page during the years in question.

I. WILLIAM LAWRENCE married RACHAEL WELSH and had-

1. Elizabeth (12.24.1655-) m-1 Caleb Calloway who d. 6.15.1706. m-2 John Pearre.
2. William (7.20.1661-8.13.1694) m. 1.7.1689 Margaret Boge. She m-2 4.8.1696 Francis Tomes, jr.

TIMOTHY CLARE m-2 c1695/6 Elizabeth
TIMOTHY CLARE m-3 5.1.1702/3 HANNA LAWRENCE SNELLING widow of Isreal.

7. Hanna married Benjamin Bundy
8. Jane married Thomas Jessop
9. Hepzibah (4.14.1702-) married Jacob Perry

The foregoing line is noted, as perhaps having significance in the line of THOMAS WELCH of Pasquotank County, noted on page 1.

Perquimans Pct. (DB-B-183)(1.10.1724) Thomas Winslow and Elizabeth his wife (daughter Timothy Clare and Mary Bundy) assign to Thomas White (same name as residence where Court was held for THOMAS WELCH in 1694) Rights ina patent granted 4.5.1720 "to our father Timothy Clare and by his will to us" 330ac.
Wss: THOMAS WALSH, Joseph Jessop.

Joseph Jessop was bother of Thomas Jessop who married Jane Clare of Timothy and Hanna Lawrence Snelling.

It is not without the realm of possibilities that since Joseph Jessop was related to the grantors in this deed, that perhaps THOMAS WALSH (Welch-Welsh) was also more than a neighbor. Since witnesses presumably had knowledge of the land and were often relatives, the deed assumes some additional significance, JAMES WELCH of Chowan County.

We have but two direct evidences of the noted early setler, however corollary evidences add additional information.

JAMES WELCH, Testator. Will dated 11.11.1711.
"North Carolina, November ye 11th.,1711, JAMES WELCH of Chowan precinct, being sick and weak but in sound mind and memory do here make my last will and testament.
FIRST: I bequeath my soul to God that gave it, in hopes my beloved Savior will make intercessions for me and my body to the earth from whence it came and all my temporal estate as followeth-
FIRST I give to my beloved daughter MARY, three cows and calves and one young mare with all her increase and, if it pleases God, ye child my wife is now with, if it lives, I give three cows and calves and one young mare with her increase.
I give unto my beloved wife (unnamed), ye right and occupation of ye plantation where I now live and after my wife's decease, I give and bequeath it to ye child she now goes with, if please God it be a son. If a daughter I give and bequeath it to my daughter MARY and as for ye moveables, I give and bequeath them to my wife. As for ye cows and calves I would have my children possessed with them as soon after my decease as possible. I appoint my brother-in-law HENRY BONNER to be my lawful Attorney and to see that this, my last will and testament be proven according to law.
Given under my hand and seal, this day above written.
JAMES (mark) WELCH

Wss: John Tayler, William Branch, Wilt Tanner.
Ref: N.C.Secretary of State Wills 1712-1722. (SS-875-pp40)

Chowan County (DB-B1-314)(8.1.1716 dated and proven)
JOHN DAVIS of Bath County, Planter, for valuable considerations paid by JAMES WELCH, late of Chowan Precinct, sells to MARY WELCH, daughter and heir at law of JAMES WELCH, 200ac. in Chowan County at head of Slocum's Creek, adjng. Mrs. Johanah Peterson, William Branch, Henry Bonner.
Wss: Richard Hicks, Thomas Harvey.

The foregoing Will has the flavor of a man who has married for the second time, perhaps comparatively recently and that a daughter by a previous marriage MARY WELCH was living with him.

The use of the term "brother-in-law" is confusing, as in the early days it often denoted a step-brother. If it means the former JAMES WELCH married a Bonner, sister of HENRY BONNER. If it means the latter, JAMES WELCH'S father married secondly a Bonner, or his mother married secondly a Bonner. Hathaway notes that on 4.1.1705 a HENRY BONNER married DEBORAH WHIDBY of John. If the same HENRY BONNER it still offers no solution.

The 1716 Deed conveys land to MARY WELCH, "for valuable considerations paid by JAMES WELCH". Since the Will bequeaths the plantation (with life tenure to the widow) to his daughter MARY WELCH providing the child "in esse" is not a son, it seems reasonable to assume that the tract "sold" to MARYWELCH, was in fact, the plantation where JAMES WELCH lived in 1711. The requirement of this deed, to establish ownership, may have been necessary by the loss of the deed by JAMES WELCH, or the 1716 deed merely confirmed a previous sale. Pre-Revolutionary laws permitted girls of 16 to possess land, making plausible the suggestion that MARY WELCH was born no later than 1700.

Since the 200ac. tract (plantation) adjoined both HENRY BONNER and WILLIAM BRANCH on Slocum's Creek, it becomes necessary to pin point where these adjoiners lived.

> ANTHONY SLOCUM (aged 90 years in 1680. Hath.I-139) died siezed of 620ac. on Machecomack Creek, Chowan County, known by name of Slocum's. (Hath.I-117)

Edenton Bay, whereon the City of Edenton sits, has an east Branch known as Queen Anne Creek, while the west arm, longer in length is known as Matchamacormack Creek.

> William Branch patented 292ac. on Mattacomack Creek at Bonner's Cove. His wife was Margaret Wheatley. His Will 11.24.1720 bequeaths plantation of south side of Mattacomack Creek and mentions HENRY BONNER and PAUL PALMER.

The Branch Family came to NC c1694 from Surry Co. Va. (Boddie: Southside Virginia Families II-47)

Hathaway (I-144) names HENRY BONNER as Road Commissioner "from Terrapin Hill DOWN to JAMES WELCH'S" and Thomas Hoskins as Commissioner from "JAMES WELCH'S to the usual limits".

The Virginia Road (now US-32) from Edenton north to Suffolk, Nansemond Co. Va. was presumably the only main road existing in the early 1700s. Terrapin Hill is on the Virginia Road just above Bennett's Mill Pond and the town of Valhalla, some 7 to 8 miles north of Edenton.

The JAMES WELCH plantation is thus located about 3-4 miles north of Edenton and the west side of Matchamacormick Creek. (Slocums Creek)

In the Council Minutes- Wills & Inventories, 1677-1701 as noted at the Archives, Raleigh, NC. File SS0874.2 pp.101 Dated 169? but later than 6.25.1694, the following-

> Robert Fraser, deceased, intestate. Administra- of his estate granted to ANN, wife of JAMES WELCH as nearest of kin.

"Nearest of Kin" probably indicates sister relationship.

Two deeds add interest to the "ANN wife of JAMES WELCH" Administration of Robert Fraser, Intestate.

The two deeds were recorded at the same time (DB-A-80) and (DB-A-81) however the deeds were DATED some nine months apart.

11.2.1693 John Flowers & Susanna sell plantation to Timothy Clare on north side Perquimans River adjng. William Bundy and John Flowers.

6.25.1694 Timothy Clare assigns "said bill of sale" unto Robert Fraser

The foregoing items bring a JAMES WELCH and wife ANN into the picture around the William Lawrence and RACHAEL WELCH family. thru Timothy Clare. An interesting development, suggesting that JAMES WELCH and RACHAEL WELCH may have a close relationship.

An unassimilated item, but possibly connected with the foregoing-

WELCH'S CREEK IN CAROLINA

The creek rises near the junction of Beaufort, Martin, and Washington Cos., N. C., and flows north, forming the boundary between Martin and Washington Cos. It flows into the Roanoke River which was once called the Moratuck. No record has been found of any name which preceded that of Welch's Creek. Proof that the name has persisted at least two hundred and fifty-eight years since the departure of the last Welsh family from that vicinity is found in a deed recorded in Chowan Co., N. C., and abstracted below:

> Deed Book W, p. 27, 13 Oct. 1701. Jam^{s} Welsh of the County of Bath unto Mr. Jam^{s} Long of the prec^{t} of Chowan in the County of Albem^{l} "for divers good Causes thereunto Moving but more Especially for the Just sum of Ten pounds" 500 acres "in Welshe's Creek in Maratock River", including "housing, fencing, clear ground, Orchards, with all timber Growing Laying or appertaining to the Land". Signed by name. Wit: Jo^{n} Hawkinse, Wm[?] Lillington, Humphrey Legg. Ordered to be Registered April 7, 1702.

The land is specifically located by a record of the Long family as being "between Conaby's and Welch's Creek" in Chowan Precinct. (Hathaway, North Carolina Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 3, p. 51.) This would be near the present town of Plymouth, N. C., which some historians think was the site or near the site of the first permanent settlement in N. C. Corbitt, in his Formation of North Carolina Counties, "Introduction", p. xi, mentions the fact that Roger Green, a clergyman from Nansemond Co., Va., took a leading part in exploring the region south of the Chowan River. Winslow states in her History of Perquimans County, p. 1, that Roger Green started with a colony to settle on the lower Chowan River in 1653 and "came vested with power to possess lands in Carolina". Supporting the date of a settlement in Albemarle County about that time are the words of Governor Walker written in a letter to the Bishop of London October 21, 1703, "we have been here near fifty years".

A manuscript map of the area, dated 1657, only four years later than 1653, marks the house of a Mr. Ball on the Albemarle Sound between "Platts Creek" and the "Morattico River". (Cummings, The Southeast In Early Maps, Plate 32.) Corbitt states on p. xii, Formation of North Carolina Counties, that

> "Robert Lawrence, in 1707, said that in 1661 he seated a plantation on the southwest side of the Chowan River where he lived for seven years. Other early settlers there were Thomas Relfe, Samuel Pricklove, Caleb Calloway, George Catchmaid, John Jenkins, John Harvey, Thomas Jarvis, George Durant."

The proximity of the above settlers, including kin, allies, and associates, of William Lawrence and his wife, Rachel Welsh, to the Welsh land "in Welshe's Creek", leads to the belief that Rachel, who was at least a generation older than the James Welsh who sold the land, was herself a member of the same family; and that perhaps she and her husband themselves had lived during the decade preceding their residence in Perquimans County, somewhere southwest or south of the Chowan River among their kinsmen and contemporaries who, most of them, also, moved a little later to Perquimans County.

William Lawrence married Rachel Welsh about 1654/5, and according to the Berkeley Parish Register, they had their first child, Elizabeth, December 24, 1655. Of the above named settlers southwest of the Chowan River by 1661, Caleb Calloway, probably of the second generation, married Elizabeth Lawrence; Samuel Pricklove became the second husband of Rachel (Welsh) Lawrence; Robert Lawrence who was adjoined by his brother John (The North Carolinian, Vol. I, No. 2, Number Two, p. 44.) was undoubtedly the brother of William Lawrence. (The Lawrence family, Boddie, Historical Southern Families, Vol. II, p. 181.) And of the remaining list of settlers, most of them appeared a little later in the records of Perquimans County where, as early as 1663, William Lawrence and Rachel are noted as adjoiners to William Vose. (Perquimans County History, Deed Book A, p. 51.) There is evidence that by this date William Lawrence had already lived somewhere in Albemarle County for at least a decade:

> Winslow's History of Perquimans County, p. 63, Deed Book A, No. 325. "Thomas Meriday & Elizabeth my wife, dau. of John Larance (Lawrence) Dec'd 'son of Old William Larence, the first in the Co. of Albemarle, N. C.' ---"

The question which affects Welch's Creek is whether he went to Albemarle County preceding all settlers. If so, he must have married Rachel in Albemarle County; and she must have gone there with her own Welsh family about 1653, probably in Roger Green's colony. Even if it was meant that William Lawrence was only the first of his family in Albemarle County he would have had to go there before Robert and John Lawrence who settled on the southwest side of the Chowan River in 1661. No colony is known to have preceded that date except that of Roger Green in 1653.

Thus, from the known data, we are led to wonder if a Welsh family of even the generation before Rachel, and certainly of a generation older than James Welsh who sold the five hundred acres "in Welshe's Creek", lived on the creek at the time that William Lawrence married Rachel, surely before 1655 which was the year of the birth of their first child, Elizabeth. Another James Welsh, or Welch, probably of Rachel's generation, died in Chowan Precinct leaving a will, dated 1711. He, too, may have been of the same family, and possibly the father of James Welsh of Pantego Creek, in Bath County. So far, no proof of a connection has been found.

Evidence that the name of Welch's Creek may indeed be three hundred years old lies in the deed itself, the absence of any record showing a previous name, native or other, and in the logic that no landmark of importance waits around without a name for thirty or forty years, or even a decade, in a settled area. There is no feeling of transiency, either, about a family whose name prefixes a landmark. The inference, usually, from such circumstances is that the family arrived there before other families and somehow dominated the scene. Brief residence in a spot seldom affects place names, and certainly does not in an area previously inhabited.

In regard to Rachel Welsh's vital statistics in the Berkeley Parish Register, it should be said that they do not necessarily prove residence in Berkeley Parish, "later Perquimans County". Before the Vestry Act of 1715 all of North Carolina was in one parish. Berkeley Parish, as conterminous with Perquimans County, did not exist until 1715, by which date Rachel probably had died. The consecutive entries in the Register indicate that they were made long after the events had occurred, possibly copied from records left among her children, most of them residents of Perquimans County in Berkeley Parish.

RACHEL WELSH WAS AMONG THE VERY FIRST SETTLERS OF NORTH CAROLINA. By her second husband, Samuel Pricklove, she is believed to be the mother of John Pricklove, the ancestor of William Perry Johnson, genealogist, and editor of The North Carolinian, Box 531, Raleigh, N. C. Mr. Johnson has contributed the following data, which he compiled, to the Welch-Welsh-Walsh Association.

[Editor's note: As stated previously, we do not believe that the records of the Berkeley Parish Register are necessarily proof of residence within Perquimans Precinct during all of the dates mentioned therein. Berkeley Parish, as conterminous with the bounds of Perquimans Precinct, was not created until 1715. Preceding that date all of North Carolina was in one parish. Whether the original parish, also, was called Berkeley we have been unable to learn.]

Mr. Johnson's data are copied from his report:

Hathaway, North Carolina Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 3, No. 2, April 1903, p. 199, "Births, Deaths, and Marriages in Berkeley, Later Perquimans Precinct, N. C.":

"William Larance & Rachell Welsh was Married ---." (The next item - WPJ:)
"Samuel Pricklove & Rachel Larance the 1st of June 1668."

(Note by WPJ: I checked the original Berkeley Parish Register here the N. C. Dep't of Archives and History, Raleigh, and found that the Pricklove-Larance marriage actually read as follows: "Samuill Priklove & Rachall Larance the widdow -- [torn WPJ] William Larance was Maried by Mr. Jeremi- [torn WPJ] Minister of the gospell the 1st of June 1668." The minister no doubt was Jeremia Taylor who performed other marriages at the same period as recorded in the Berkeley Parish Register.)

Hathaway, Vol. 3, No. 2, April 1903, p. 206, "Births, Deaths, and Marriages in Berkeley, Later Perquimans Precinct, N. C." (The following seven items were listed consecutively. WPJ):

"Elizabeth Larance the daughter of Will Larance & Rachell his wife, was borne ye 24th of Desember 1655.
"Will Larance the son of Will Larance & Rachell his wife was born ye 20th of July 1661.
"Rachell Larance the daughter of Will Larance & Rachell his wife was borne ye 16th of April 1665.
"John Larance the son of Will Larance & Rachell his wife was borne ye 14th of March 1667.
"Hannah Larance the daughter of Will Larance & Rachell his wife was borne the 1st of Desember 1669.
"Samuel Pricklove the son of Samuel Pricklove & Rachell his wife was borne ye 24th of Desember 1671.
"Sarah Pricklove the daughter of Samuel Pricklove & Rachell his wife was borne the 23rd of October 1674."

Ibid., p. 199. "Caleb Calloway & Elizabeth Laraunce was married by Jeremia Taylor Minister of the gospell the 29th of -- [torn WPJ]." (Note by WPJ: William Calloway, eldest child of Caleb and Elizabeth, was born 13 Feb. 1671/2, so the marriage no doubt occurred in 1671.)

Ibid., p. 204. "Will Larance & Margaret Boge ware Maried by Alex. Lillington Jany. 7th 1689."

Ibid., p. 401. "William Lawrance departed this Life Aug. 13, 1694." (See Grimes for his will. - WPJ.)

Ibid., p. 407. "Francis Tomes (son of Francis and wife Presillo) and Maragaret Lawrance (relict of William) were married June 8, 1696, at a meeting at ye said Lawrance's house."

Piney Woods Mo. Mtg. (Quaker WPJ), Perquimans Co., N. C. (The following from WPJ's typed copy of the original records):

"Francis Tomes, son of Francis, and Maragaret Laurance, widow of William of same place, declared intention of marriage at a meeting at house of Francis Tomes, and were married 1696-4-8, at the house of Margaret Laurance.

Hathaway, Vol. 3, p. 204, (Berkeley Parish Register): "John Larance son of William Larance & Hannah Bundy did take each other for man & wife in a quarterly Meeting at Francis Toms ys. ye 22d --- 1692." (The original record gave the full date 22d of 9 Mo. 1692. John Lawrence died Oct. 28, 1700, according to Hathaway, Vol. 3, p. 403; but I have found no record of death or second marriage for Hannah. - WPJ.)

Winslow, History of Perquimans County, (N. C.), p. 63, her abstract: "Deed Book A, Deed No. 325. Thomas Meriday & Elizabeth my wife, dau of John Larance (Lawrence) Dec'd 'son of Old William Larence, the first in the Co. of Albemarle, N. Hathaway, Vol. 3, pp. 203, 403: "Iserael Snelling & Hannah Larance ware Maried by Edward Mayo Esqr. the 30th of July 1687."

Ibid., p. 403. "Israel Snellen departed this life Nov. 2, 1700 att his own house."

William Wade Hinshaw, Supplement to Vol. I, Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, p. 6, "Perquimans Mo. Mtg. - Additions":

" -- of 1 Mo. 1702/3 - Hannah Snelling, relict of Isreal, late of Perquimans, married Timothy Clare."

(Note by WPJ: The year 1669 given for the birth of Hannah Lawrence can be explained by the fact that until 1752 the Julian Calendar was in use, by which the English year began March 25th. In 1582 Pope Gregory XIII made changes which were not accepted by the English until 1752. There was much confusion, and dates which fell at the end and beginning of each year were double-dated, as for example, 1700/01, that is, 1700 by the Julian Calendar, but 1701 by the Gregorian Calendar. Hannah probably was born after the death of her father and perhaps after the remarriage of her mother. The custom of remarrying soon after the death of the mate was so prevalent in early N. C. that the Quakers, at least, tried to make everyone wait a year before remarrying.)

Hathaway, Vol. 1, p. 138: "Ordered, that Caleb Calloway appraise ye estate of William Lawrence, and make return thereof to ye Precinct Court." [This probably has reference to William Lawrence, Sr., the father of Hannah. - Ed.]

Samuel Pricklove (now Pritlow, Pretlow, etc.), was born c1631/32 (aged 49 "or thereabouts" about the year 1781. (Hathaway, Vol. 3, pp. 45, 46.) He died 20 April 1692. (Ibid., p. 220.) He married (possibly not the first time - WPJ) 1 June 1668 (Ibid., p. 199) Rachel (Welsh) Lawrence, widow of William Lawrence.

THOMAS WELCH, INDENTURED SERVANT OF JOSEPH COMMANDER

[Joseph and Samuel Commander were brothers. They, with John Whitehead, were heirs of Gov. John Harvey. (Hathaway, Vol. 3, p. 253.) Servants in those days may have been apprentices, orphans, headrights, friends, or members of the family. Individuals often bound themselves to a master in order to pay passage on a ship or to be imported from another colony. - Ed.]

This question has been around for years. The following is what I've found.

"It has been rumored that WHITE is the birth name of Rebecca probably because Arnould White (d. 1690, Pasquotank) named in his will, "brothers Henry white and thomas simons..." [Hinshaw Vol I. pg 91]. However, the will of Henry White Sr. named no daughter Rebecca. Also John (son of Rebecca and Thomas) married Demaris White (dau of Henry White Jr.) They would have been first cousins if Rebecca was Henry Jr's sister. This would not have been allowed by the Friends. (Source: No Car Gen Quarterly; Vol XV, No 1 Spring 1969 pg 2293) "

Suzanne

Anyway, who did Thomas Symons marry - Rebecca West or Rebecca White? Very Confusing. Anyone able to help on this?

Descendants of Henry White

Generation No. 1

1. HENRY[2] WHITE (HENRY[1]) was born 1635 in Albemarle County, North Carolina[1], and died 03 August 1712 in Pasquotank County, North Carolina[2]. He married (1) MARY 1660 in Little River, Pasquotank Precinct, Albemarle County, North Carolina, daughter of JOSEPH CROSHAW. She was born 1635[3], and died 03 March 1678/79 in Pasquotank County, North Carolina[4,5,6]. He married (2) DAMARIS MORISON 1681 in Perquimans County, North Carolina[7]. She was born Abt. 1659[8], and died 12 September 1722 in Pasquotank County, North Carolina[8].

Notes for HENRY WHITE:
"History of Perquimans County" by Mrs. Watson Winslow, 1974, pp. 425-428) states that this Henry was probably the son of Henry White of York Co. VA. She goes on to say . . . From the dates it seems probably that this was the identical Henry White who migrated to Perq. Precinct N.C. before 1670. He built the first Quaker Church in Perquimans, thought to be Little River Mo meeting, which was about where Woodville is situated. Just beyond the confines of this village can be seen at the present time an old Quaker burying grand, with small stones such as were in common use at that day mong the simple Quakers. meetings were held at the house of Henry White, 26, 4 mo 1690, at which time, James Davis (s of William and Elizabeth White (d of Henry) of Albemarle, took each other as man and wife. . . . As Arnold appears in Perq simultaneously with Henry White, the inference may be drawn with some certainty, that they were brothers, but the records do not mention the fact. John and William White also made their entry into Perquimans about the same time, and they may also be brothers." Henry White bought land in Surry Co. VA on June 9, 1655 (Surry Records).

It appears there is a conflict of death dates for this Henry White. Winslow's "History of Permquimans County", p. 426 states: "The will of Henry White, probated in Albemarle, Sept. 19, 1706, names the following issue: Henry, Arnold, Isaac, Robert & John, to whom he devised his "Maner plantation," dau's: Content and Naomy." Hinshaw's "Ency. of Am. Quaker Gen." Vol, I, p. 124 gives his death date as August 03, 1712.

"Henry White, Jr. 750 acres in a small creek called Corawatucks that falls into Kecoughtanke River, beginning toward the head of the same, running West Northwest . . . Dated September 25, 1663. For the transportation of 14 persons, including PERRY GREENE, DANIEL WALKER, EDWARD

MORGAN, RICHARD STAPLES, HESTER MORGAN, EDWARD PARRET (BARRETT), JOHN PINE and again DANIEL WALKER." (Ray, "Old Albemarle and its Absentee Landlords", p. 567.) (See notes for Henry White, Sr. for further information regarding N.C. settlement)

"Henry White, before or about 1700, said he was 57 years old and knew Samuel Davis of Pasquotank County in Isle of Wight County, County Virginia, who was an apprentice to his father Henry White, and that Samuel Davis married Ann, a servant of Capt. james Blount, also if Isle of Wight, and all now of Pasquotank County." (Ray, "Old Albemarle and its Absentee Landlords", p. 567.)

Henry White, Jr. was a Quaker, as he signed the Quaker's Petition to the Lord Proprietors in 1679 concerning the disorders of the Culpepper Rebellion. (N.C. Col. Records, Vol I, p. 232). ("Seventeenth Century Isle of Wight County, Virginia" by John Bennett Boddie, p. 133.)

"The earliest men's minute book of Pasquotank Monthly Meeting begins with a reference to a monthly meeting held at the house of Henry White the 7th of 5th month, probably in 1698. The recorded minutes date from 1699. During the years 1700 and 1702, monthly meetings were held at the houses of Henry White, Thomas Cartwright and Stephen Scott." (Hinshaw, "Ency. of Amer. Quaker Gen." Vol 1 Part 1, p. 91.)

"In 1696, the authorities of North Carolina granted to Henry White a tract of land in Pasquotank Precinct, comprising about one hundred acres. Mr. Whie was one of the most prominent members of the Society of Friends, a minister and recorder of teh Little River quarterly meeting. The first book of records of that meeting is principally in his handwriting." ("The Journal of American Genealogy," Volume V, Number 4, 1930, p. 66.)

April 18, 1704, Henry White Senr. of the County of Albemarle in North Carolina for Several reasons that moveth me hereunto but especially for love and affection that I bear to my Son in Law John Morris . . . make this deed of gift . . a parcel of land, the quantity not known out of a Patent in the kings name bearing date the 25th day of September 1663 . . . Beggining at a Red Oak on up the side of a little branch, and so nearest a Westerly Course by a Rowe of marked trees to another little branch to a marked Sassifrax marked four ways so up the said branch to the head line joining upon Robert Lowry's land so up the said line to the said branch we begun at so down the said branch to the first Station to the Red Oak marked four ways which is the Corner tree. Nevertheless if the said John Morris shall see cause to make Sale of the said Land shall proffer the sale of it to me my heirs Exrs. administrators of assigns and if he or they shall refuse to buy then he the said John Morris is left to his freedom to make Sale of it to whom he pleaseth . . ." (Bjorkman, "Pasquotank County, North Carolina Record of Deeds, 1700-1751, Record of Deeds Vol. A, p. 4.)

Marriage Notes for HENRY WHITE and MARY:
Virkus, "The Compendium of American Genealogy" p. 452 states: "Henry (163501712), of Little River, Pasquotank Precinct, Albemarle Co., N.C. m 1660, Mary -- 1635-79."

Notes for DAMARIS MORISON:
WFT #2041, Vol VI states that Damaris' maiden name was Page (b. Boston) and that she was first married to John Morris. Mother was Damaris Shattuck, father Isaac Page.

Marriage Notes for HENRY WHITE and DAMARIS MORISON:

"1681, 7, 10. Henry declared intention of marrying Damaris Morison (2nd time), at a MM held at the houes of Henry Prows in Little River." (Hinshaw, "Ency. of Amer. Quaker Gen.", Perquimans, MM, N.C., Vol. 1, p. 78.)

Children of HENRY WHITE and MARY are:

i. ANN[3] WHITE, b. 05 October 1669.

ii. ELIZABETH WHITE, b. 29 October 1673; m. JAMES DAVIS, 06 April 1690.

Marriage Notes for ELIZABETH WHITE and JAMES DAVIS:
"4-6-1690, Elezabeath, dt. Henry, Albemarle Co., m. Jeams Davis, at the house of Henry White." (Hinshaw, "Ency. of Amer. Quaker Gen.", Vol I, Part 1, p. 172).

2. iii. ROBERT WHITE, b. 02 November 1674; d. Bef. 19 April 1698, Perquimans County, North Carolina.

iv. JAMES WHITE, b. 20 May 1676, Pasquotank County, North Carolina; m. SARAH ALFORD, 1703.

3. v. JOHN WHITE, b. 20 May 1676, Pasquotank County, North Carolina; d. 25 January 1716/17, Pasquotank County, North Carolina.

vi. ELKANAH WHITE, b. 04 February 1678/79.

Children of HENRY WHITE and DAMARIS MORISON are:

vii. MARY[3] WHITE, b. 15 August 1682.

viii. DAMARIS WHITE, b. December 1684.

ix. CONTENT WHITE, b. Abt. 1687.

4. x. HENRY WHITE, JR., b. 25 April 1690, Pasquotank County, North Carolina; d. 25 March 1739, Pasquotank County, North Carolina.

5. xi. ARNOLD WHITE, b. July 1693; d. 24 April 1751, Perquimans County, North Carolina.

xii. MARY WHITE, b. July 1696.

xiii. ISAAC WHITE, b. 24 April 1700.

Notes for ISAAC WHITE:
Note that Winslow, "History of Perquimans County" 1974, p. 426 lists Isaac as Jonas, same date of birth.

xiv. NAOMY WHITE, b. July 1704.

Notes for NAOMY WHITE:
Note that Winslow, "History of Perquimans County" 1974, p. 426 lists Naomy as Sarah, same date of birth. .

She gives the line Henry WHITE, a cooper of Isle of Wight Ci., VA. Henry's first wife was Rebecca (possibly ARNOLD) m. 2nd Eleanor__?__. After Henry's death Eleanor m (2) George Taylor m.(3)Mr. Buckley II Henry, Jr. m. (1) Mary (possibly Moore, widow of Henry Moore, m.(2) Damaris Page Morriswon d/o Isaac & Damaris (Shattuck) Page & widow of John MORRISON.

She says Rebecca WHITE b. ca 1654 is not the Rebecca who was m. to Thomas SYMONS as some people say, (that was possibly Rebecca WEST)

The book "The BATCHELOR - WILLIAMS Families & Related Lines" by Lyle Keith Williams, pub. 1976. He says Henry m. (1) Rebecca AENOLD (2) Eleanor __?__. He also says that Rebecca White m. Thomas SYMONSNS.

In the SYMONS_SIMONDS_SIMONS Family History by James Harrispn Daniels, Jr. states that Thomas SYMONS m. a Rebecca__?__. He says it has been questioned that Rebecca was a WHITE.

I haven't searched for primary documentation for the wives. I generally use a question mark when it hasn't been proved. Sorry that's all I can come up with.

Dr. Hobbs, then about eighty years of age, "presented the marker to the city of Hertford in an eloquent address." A pageant depicting the arrival of Fox and Edmundson was written by Josephine Davis, and presented as a part of the celebration. Reuben Payne played the role of George Fox, and J. Waldo Woody that of an Indian chief.

19. Many decades later when Friends were settling farther inland, meetings were named for creeks, rivers, mountains, trees and springs. Seven meetings in North Carolina and Tennessee took their names from springs. In the days of long slow travel, the meeting house needed to be near a good spring of water.

26. While searching through the early Perquimans records recently Thomas E. This long religious-teaching poem is significant, in that it is the earliest known literary work to appear in Carolina, pre-dating any other by some forty years. White's use of unpredictable meter indicates that he was more interested in instructing members in the Quaker faith than in fine writing.

CHAPTER THREE

THE QUAKER COMMUNITIES IN ALBEMARLE

The land configurations of Albemarle made the area attractive and accessible. Laced with small streams, creeks, and deep rivers, the easy access by water into the untamed region offered ports for ocean-going ships able to take the settlers' products directly to Caribbean ports and to the other colonies. Abundance of water also aided the farmers with their crops and for their homes (Fig. 12). The Chowan, Perquimans, Pasquotank, and Little Rivers were linked with the smaller streams making a veritable water highway throughout the area. The source of these rivers was the Great Dismal Swamp, where the color of the water was a deep red, caused by the waters passing through the roots of the cypress trees. The water, however, was perfectly clear, tasted by no means unpleasant, and was quite wholesome. It had a diuretic effect on those who drank it, and prevented agues and fevers, or so it was claimed. Filled with the perils of virgin forests, native Indians, wild animals, insects, snakes, and reptiles, this area south of the Great Dismal Swamp was also more isolated from the English authorities.

Following the first landowners who settled along the main rivers and shores of Albemarle Sound, new arrivals were finding homesites father up near the heads of the four main rivers. When the word spread that this was a place where people were able to worship in freedom and that the Virginia government had less influence in the region, the Quakers in southern Virginia came to Albemarle in increasing numbers. They were an industrious, plain, sober, and hardy people who had already endured much hardship and privation. They were soon joined by other Quakers from the New England colonies who had heard that new oncerned with the question of slavery, they knew they could not operate their farms without slave help. They preferred living in frontier areas where ere free of the social pressures of concentrated population. Albemarle was becoming quite populated.

HENRY WHITE

One of the earliest Quakers in Pasquotank County was Henry White who had come from Isle of Wight County, Virginia, around 1670. He had purchased lands at the head of Little River where a preparatory meeting had been established as early as 1663. White served as Registrar for Little River Meeting and for the Pasquotank Monthly Meeting which included four other meetings besides Little River. He served on the North Carolina Higher court and for short periods of time on the Precinct County Court.

White gave land for the building of a school alongside the meeting house which was the first school built in North Carolina, and he taught in that school. A poem White wrote in 1698 as a teaching tool for his students came to light at Guilford College in Greensboro, NC. This long poem is said to be the oldest extant work of poetry from the southern states. It apparently was used as a form of communication with other Quaker meetings in various regions and to instruct his pupils with a religious message of the Quaker faith at the same time.

As a young man White had attended school in Isle of Wight County, where his father made a living as a cooper and served as Justice of the Peace. His grandfather, Henry White, had lived on Queen's Creek in York County, north of Williamsburg.

In 1631 Governor John Harvey determined to secure the area between the James and York Rivers by building a palisade across the peninsula between Archer's Hope (College Creek) and Queen's Creek. Incentives were offered to any settler who would relocate to that area to defend and protect the development of the area. Fifty acres were offered to each man who would relocate there for the first year, twenty-five acres for a second year. This may have been the incentive for families like the Whites and the Hills to spend a short period at Queen's Creek in York county, later returning to the counties south of the James River.

"Henry White, a slaveholder, who owned large tracts of valuable land, resided in James City County, Virginia. About 1663 to 1665 he moved and settled in Pasquotank Precinct, Albemarle Co., North Carolina, due to persecution of those, other than the Church of England, in Virginia, and the large grants of land offered in the Carolinas."

On a plaque of the very first English settlers of the Jamestown Colony in 1607 is a list including a William White, laborer. It remains unknown whether this William White might be an ancestor or relative of the Henry White mentioned above.

EARLIEST RECORDS OF "MORRIS" IN AMERICA

John Morris was born on March 3, 1680 and died in Perquimans/Pasquotank County, North Carolina, on Sept. 20, 1739 at the age of 59. He was a Quaker (member of Little River Meeting, Albemarle, North Carolina) and was "an elder pretty well accounted of." This John Morris is our first verified ancestor in America.

According to one theory (Morris Family Tree, by Oliver M. Morris), "the root of the Morris family was first found in Wales, in western England in 1273, but from the best authority it is believed they originally migrated from Morocco in North Africa to Wales." Morris comes from the Welsh "Mawr-rwyce", meaning "strong or brave in battle".

The first entry of record of Morris in America was in 1660 when John Morris, possibly the father of the John Morris above, and his two brothers, Caleb and Phineas, emigrated from Wales to North Carolina and settled in the counties of Pasquotank and Perquimans, in northeast North Carolina. These 3 Welsh brothers, who came to this country together, were noted for their "industry, thrift, and other steady habits." (from Among Ouselves: To a Mother's Memory, Vol. I, Sarah Morrison)

Another theory (in the Winslow-Morris Genealogy by Fred E. Winslow) suggests that a John Morris (b. 1595) who arrived from England on the ship "Bona Nova" in November 1619 to the Jamestown Colony, later moving to the Perquimans/Pasquotank area, was an ancestor of our John Morris, possibly his grandfather. This John Morris (b. 1595) was probably driven out of Virginia for religious reasons. The parents of our John Morris (b. 1680) may have been a John and Elizabeth Morris.

creasing anti-Negro feeling prompted White not to seek reelection in 1900. When his term ended in 1901, he and his family moved to Washington, D.C., where he practiced law until 1905. He then went to Philadelphia. While continuing his law practice, he became involved in banking, founding the first black-managed bank in Philadelphia. He also established an all-black community in Cape May County, N.J., called Whitesboro.

White married Fannie B. Randolph in 1879, and they had one child, Della. In 1886 he married Cora Lina Cherry, the daughter of Henry C. Cherry, a black politician from Tarboro. They had two children, Mary A. and George H., Jr.

White, Henry, Jr. (1642–3 Aug. 1712), Quaker leader, colonial official, and poet, was born in Isle of Wight County, Va. His father, Henry White, Sr., a cooper, married, first, Elener (surname unknown) and, later, Rebecca Arnold, and it is unclear which was the mother of Henry White, Jr. The younger White also was married twice; by his first wife Mary were daughters Ann (1669), Elizabeth, and Elkanah (1679), and sons Robert (1674), and twins James and John (1676), of whom only Robert and John survived childhood. By his second wife, Damaris Morison, were daughters Mary, Damaris, Content, and Naomy, and sons Henry III, Arnold II, and Isaac.

White, like his father, bought land in North Carolina in 1663; he eventually moved to a plantation along the west side of Little River in Perquimans Precinct at least by 1679, but probably much earlier. In the 1690s he served as a justice on the North Carolina Higher Court as well as in the precinct county court.

Between 1672 and 1679 he was converted to Quakerism and was one of the earliest members of the Little River Preparative Meeting, one of five meetings that made up Pasquotank Monthly Meeting. White served as the monthly meeting's "registrer" (recording clerk), it meeting alternately at his and Caleb Bundy's home until 1707, when the first meetinghouse was built. This structure was erected partly under White's leadership on land next to his plantation. He was active among North Carolina Friends both as organizer and seemingly as lay minister, evidenced by a few extant writings.

White's lasting contribution was a 302-line poem in rhymed couplet and doggerel verse, written in 1698. This seventeenth-century poem is the earliest known literary work of its kind produced in North Carolina. It is an account of the fall of man in the garden of Eden, his restoration through Christ, and "some holsom exhortations for everyone to take notis of."

THOMAS E. TERRELL, JR.

White, Hugh Lawson (30 Oct. 1773–10 Apr. 1840), lawyer, banker, judge, legislator, claims commissioner, U.S. senator, and presidential candidate, was born to James and Mary Lawson White in that part of Rowan County that is now Iredell County. About 1785 James White moved his family to the Holston River and led in founding Knoxville, Tenn. His service to the state of Franklin—in the territorial legislature, Tennessee Constitutional Convention, and state legislature—and his friendship with the Blounts, John Sevier, and Andrew Jackson connected the family closely to the fortunes of the young state and its pioneer leaders.

Hugh studied with the Reverend Samuel Carrick, the Presbyterian minister in Knoxville, and read law with Archibald Roane, who was later governor. For a time he served as secretary to William Blount, the territorial governor, and as clerk of the Knox County Court. In 1793 he participated in a campaign against the Cherokee. He spent about eighteen months in Pennsylvania, studying mathematics in Philadelphia and reading law in Lancaster. In 1796 White returned to Knoxville and began to practice law just as Tennessee became a state.

In 1798 he married Elizabeth Moore Carrick, the daughter of his teacher. They had twelve children; two died in infancy, and the mother and eight of the children died of tuberculosis within six years (1826–31). Only two children were living when he succumbed to the disease in 1840. He had married Mrs. Ann E. Peyton of Washington, D.C., on 30 Nov. 1832.

In a period of flamboyant orators, White made his reputation as a careful, scholarly lawyer dealing with the complexities of land law on the expanding frontier. At age twenty-eight he was elected to Tennessee's highest court, the Superior Court of Law and Equity. He resigned in 1807 to enter the state senate, where he supported revision of the land law and creation of a supreme court. He served as a judge on the Tennessee Supreme Court from 1809 until 1815. To most Tennesseans, he continued to be "Judge White," no matter what office he held.

White had become president of a state bank in Knoxville in 1811 and operated it until 1827. He declined to accept any salary from the bank while holding public office—an unusual attitude at that time. After Congress chartered the second Bank of the United States in 1816, White returned to the state senate and worked to secure both an expansion of state banks and heavy taxation on branches of nonstate banks. He also supported legislation to prevent duelers from holding public office.

President James Monroe appointed White to a commission to determine the validity and amounts of claims against Spain that the United States had assumed in the treaty acquiring East Florida. This service revealed White's judicial talents to numerous national leaders. It also allowed him to judge national leaders, and he resented the intervention of Secretary of State John Quincy Adams to secure reversal of a commission policy.

Not only did White disagree with the positions of Adams, but he also agreed with those of Andrew Jackson and supported him on principle as well as from friendship. When Jackson was a candidate for the U.S. Senate in 1823, White supported him, and when Jackson resigned the seat in October 1825, the legislature chose White unanimously.

WHITE

Thomas White was a subject in the colony at Jamestown, 1609. (Browns Genesis to America.)

James White in Va same date, at same place. Henry White of York Co Va, had a son Henry, who moved to Isle of Wight. From the dates it seems probable that this was the identical Henry White who migrated to Perq Precinct N. C., before 1670. He built the first Quaker Church in Perquimans, thought to be Little River Mo meeting, which was about where Woodville is situated. Just beyond the confines of this village can be seen at the present time an old Quaker burying ground, with small stones such as were in common use at that day among the simple Quakers. Meetings were held at the house of Henry White, 26, 4mo 1690, at which time, James Davis (s of William) and Elizabeth White (d of Henry) of Albemarle, took each other as man and wife. Another Quarterly meeting convened at the house of Henry White, 1, 3mo 1695, when it was "agreed that Robert Wilson, Francis Toms, & Henry White, doe write a letter in behalf of the Meeting, to friends at yearly meeting in London." At a meeting held at the house of Arnold White, 24, 4mo 1679, there were present: Henry White, Timothy Meade, Francis Toms, Charles Moris, Jonathan Tailer, Arnold White, George Tailer, Mary White, Rebecka Simons, Solomon Pool, & Margaret White. The children of Solomon Pool were registered at this meeting, as follows: Richard, b 2, 3mo 1680—Ane, b 12, 2mo 1682—Mary, b 15, 10mo 1683—Solomon (2) b 23, 4mo 1687.

As Arnold appears in Perq simultaneously with Henry White, the inference may be drawn with some certainty, that they were brothers, but the records do not mention the fact. John and William White also made their entry into Perquimans about the same time, and they may also be brothers.

White, Henry, children as recorded in the Quaker Reg, of Perq Co, are as follows: 1 Ann, b 5, 10mo 1669—2 Elizabeth, b 29, 10mo 1673—3 Robert, b 2, 11mo 1674—4 James, & John (twins), b 20, 5mo 1676—5 Elkanah, b 2mo 1679—6 Mary, b middle of 8mo 1682—Damaris, b —, 12mo 1684—8 Constant —— —9 Henry (2), b 25, 4mo 1690—10 Arnold, b end of 7mo 1693—11 Mary (2d by name), b —, 7mo 1696—12 Jonas, b 24, 4mo 1700—13 Sarah, b middle of 4mo 1704. His wife was Mary, who died 3, 3mo 1679, and mother of his first five children. His second wife is not given.

The will of Henry White, p in Albemarle, Sept 19, 1706, names the following issue: Henry, Arnold, Isaac, Robert, & John, to whom he devised his "Maner plantation," dau's: Content and Naomy. (No wife is mentioned.) Henry White bought land in Surry Co Va, June 9, 1655 (Surry records). He made an affidavit in Perq Co, 1689, giving his age as 57 years. (Gen'l Court, May 26, 1689.)

White, Arnold Sr, issue: 1 Philliman, b 10, 10mo 1670—2 Arnold, b 29, 4mo 1673—3 Paul, b 20, 1mo 1676. Mary White, wife of Arnold, died —, 1mo 1679.

White, Arnold Jr, (s of Arnold Sr) issue: 1 Paul, b 6, 8mo 1697—2 Ann, b 1, 1mo 1699—3 Joshua, b 28, 12mo 1702—4 Nehemiah, b 25, 12mo 1712—5 Pathenea, b 6, 10mo 1717. Mary wife of Arnold, died 23, 1mo 1680. He m 2d Phereby Nixon, 1, 9mo 1696.

White, John (s of Henry) m Elizabeth Newby (d of John) issue: 1 Abraham, b 3, 12mo 1700—2 Sarah, b —, 11mo 1703—3 Rachel, b —— 1705—4 Jonas, b —, 11mo 1707—5 Elirabe, b —, 1mo 1711—6 John, b —, 11mo 1713—7 Rebecca, b —, 5mo 1716.

White, Arnold, will Perq, Mar 22, 1690. Names d Elizabeth, s Arnold, brother Henry, wife not named.

WHITE

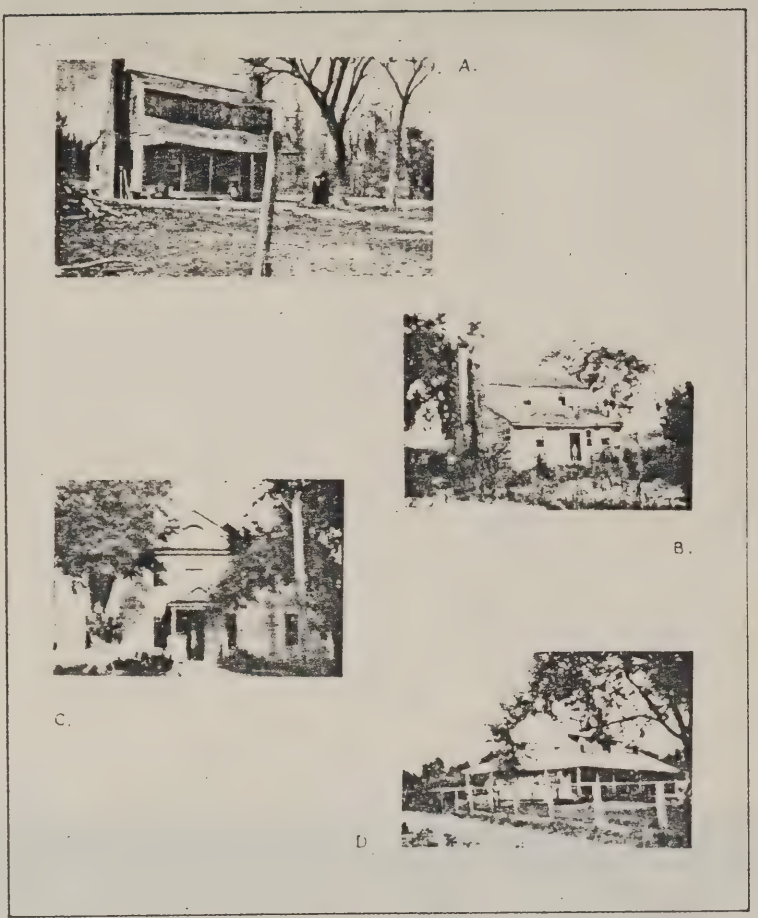

Thomas White Line

In Perquimans Co. there seems to have been two separate, & distinct, lines of this family, that of Henry White, and the descendants of Thomas, of Isle of Wight Co Va. Henry White pioneered to N. C. much earlier than the last named. It is thought, but not proven, that Thomas of Isle of Wight, was a descendant of John White, who came to Va, from New England, & took up land in Norfolk Co.

Elder John White, b 1596 in Essex Co England, arrived in New England, 1632, settled at Cambridge, Mass. John White (uncle of Peregrine, s of William, & Ann (Fuller) White) came to Norfolk Va, 1679, where he m Mary ——— & had John Nicholas, b in Norfolk 1689. John White, of the Southern Branch of Elizabeth River, Yeoman—apt' Anthony Bonford, of Chuckatuck, Nanzimund Co, planter—Att' to sell unto Paul Luke, of Isle of Wight, Land, Cattle, Household stuff, in sd Co, belonging to his wife Edy Lewellin, d of Thomas, formerly of said Co, for 300 lbs of Tob. Apl 23, 1664. (Records Isle of Wight Co.)

White, Thomas (s of John of Isle of Wight) m Rachel Jordan (d of Joshua, & Elizabeth (Sanbourne) Jordan) 13, 7mo 1719. (Elizabeth Sanborn, was d of Daniel, and wife Sarah.) (See the will of Daniel Sanborne Isle of Wight.)

White, Thomas, & wife Rachel (Jordan) had issue: 1 Lydia, b 12, 9mo 1720, m John Robinson—2 Elizabeth, b 19, 10mo 1722, m Joseph Pritchard—3 Joshua, b 26, 11mo 1727, m Gulliemma Jordan—4 Jordan, b 20, 3mo 1729—5 Thomas, & Rachel (twins), b 25, 12mo 1730—5 Rachel White, m Benjamin Winslow, (s of John, & Esther (Snelling) Winslow)—6 John, b 17, 3mo 1733, m Mary (d of Joseph, & Pleasant (Toms) Winslow)—7 Mary, b 29, 2mo 1735, m Joseph Winslow (s of Joseph & wife Pleasant (Toms) Winslow)—8 Matthew, b 10, 3mo 1738, m Mary Robinson—9 Caleb, b 8, 3mo 1740, m Rebecca

A. Home of Grandfather Caleb White, near Woodville, N. C. Original home of Francis White, father of Caleb, Miles, Toms, John, Rebecca, Sarah, Martha and Mary White. The present descendants of Caleb White in Perquimans County are Emma H. White, Emma, Elbert, Clara, Margaret and Lucy.

B. Old Toms home on Sutton's Creek. Built on land patented by Hannah Gosby for her daughter Sarah, who married Joshua Toms. Gosby Toms was the last to live in this house. Little H. G. Winslow standing in the door.

C. Courthouse in Hertford. Built in 1824. A former courthouse in Hertford stood on "Phelps Point" and was built in 1722. What became of this structure is not known and if it was situated on this site is another point not definitely settled. Across the street from this courthouse stood ye old "Eagle Hotel," now demolished, where it is claimed General Washington once spent a night.

D. The old Albertson Place. Date of erection unknown. The house of Peter Albertson who owned land on Long Branch of Sutton's Creek. This house has been somewhat modernized, but the real lines unchanged. Situated on the highway between Hertford and Elizabeth City. Now owned and occupied by Mr. Kelly Miller.

former, a 40- by 20-foot framed house with a front porch and rear shed, evidenced Godfrey's considerable fortune; the latter, considered the oldest extant building in North Carolina, also exemplified wealth in its rare brick construction of elegantly laid Flemish bond with glazed headers.

Education rested lightly upon a scattered, relatively isolated, and poor populace. The principal agencies of instruction in the colony, the Anglican and Presbyterian churches, made little impact upon Perquimans. Quakers, however, were concerned about the enlightenment of their children. Thomas Nicholson, a Quaker missionary and merchant-planter, brought Joseph Jordan to Perquimans as a schoolmaster. Deeds dated 1730 and 1745 mention teachers Thomas Weeks and Joshua Hobard respectively. Another schoolmaster, Joseph Wallace, left his mark in the public records; he was indicted in 1760 for assaulting one Abraham Enloss.

Although county deeds dated 1773 and 1778 respectively contain references to schoolhouses, education proved more an individual than an institutional concern in the county. In 1752 Macrora Scarborough left funds to be applied to "Schooling & Edicating" his two sons and for "buying them good & useful Books Such as may Instruct them in Larning and the true Principalls of Christionity." And John Harvey hired James McCartney, a young man from Ireland who wished to enter the ministry, to live in his home and serve as a tutor for the Harvey family.

Quakers produced the first evidence of literary achievement in Perquimans. In 1698 Henry White, a Virginia immigrant, penned the earliest poem known to have been written in the Carolinas, a 302-line couplet in rhymed verse that told of the fall of man and his salvation in Title script from "a few words Conserning the fall of man: and how thay wente from god in the fall and allsoe conserning the restoration by Christ Jesus and his glorious aperance: and some holsom exhortations for every one to take notis of . . . ," written in 1698 by Henry White, a prominent Quaker in Perquimans Precinct. White's lengthy couplet is believed to be the first work of poetry written in North Carolina. Manuscript of poem reproduced courtesy Friends Historical Collection, Guilford College, Greensboro.

Christ. In the eighteenth century Thomas Nicholson emerged as Perquimans's first native-born author with writings that included An Answer to the Layman's Treatise on Baptism. And in 1753 appeared the first nonlegal book printed in North Carolina, A Collection of Many Christian Experiences, Sentences and Several Places of Scripture Improved, written by Clement Hall, who had been a resident and justice of the peace in Perquimans before his ordination and missionary service on behalf of the Anglican Church.

The many books listed in Perquimans's estate inventories, although not absolutely indicative of literacy, attested to an interest in learning among the populace. The most popular book, of course, was the Bible, which graced most households. In 1680 Francis Godfrey owned a Bible and eight other books. Three quarters of a century later, Jonathan Phelps left at his death one small Bible and twenty-six other books. Cornelius Mullin possessed a large "French" Bible. And the inventory of Richard Sanderson's estate in 1772 included twenty-one books, "besides some lent out & not Ret'd," a commentary both on the frequent practice of lending books and the difficulty of retrieving them.

John Harvey undoubtedly owned the largest private library in the county before the Revolution—more than a hundred volumes. In addition to Bibles, The Common Prayer Book, The Whole Duty of Man, The Young Man's Companion, and various legal works that included Jacob's Law Dictionary, Harvey's holdings seemed weighted in favor of religious works and histories. Indicative of the influence of the former were Tillotson's Sermons, Religious Courtships, and A Defence of the Christian Religion; and of the latter, A History of New York, a two-volume history of New England, and A Chronicle of the Kings of England. For variety and spice Harvey turned to Grey's Love Letters, The Turkish Spy, and Aesop's Fables. And not to be overlooked were works by Shakespeare and Addison, the Life of Erasmus, and explanations of astronomy and surveying.

Perquimans was early the locus of a burgeoning Society of Friends, the first organized element of religion in North Carolina. When William Edmundson, Quaker missionary, reached Perquimans in the spring of 1672, he found that Henry Phelps (Phillips) and his wife "had been convinced of the Truth in New England" before coming to the Albemarle seven years earlier. From the first meeting of Friends in North Carolina, held at Phelps's house at the behest of Edmundson, and from the ministrations of George Fox, who came to the Albemarle later in 1672, arose a powerful religious force. During a second visit in 1677, Edmundson found "Friends were finely settled, and . . . left things well amongst them."

Among those converted by Edmundson during his first journey, and with whom he later stayed, was Francis Thomes (Toms), a local magistrate, deputy collector of customs, member of the governor's council, and later a noted Quaker leader. With Jonathan Phelps, Christopher Nicholson, and Ann Willson, Toms helped to spearhead the Quaker movement in Perquimans and, by extension, in North Carolina. Monthly meetings were held at least as early as 1680. Nicholson and Anne Atwood were married during that year "at a men's and women's meeting kept at the house of Francis Tomes." The following year meetings were established at Nicholson's and Henry Prow's on Little River. Monthly meetings were held at the home of Jonathan Phelps on Perquimans River in 1681 and at the home of William Wyatt at Yeopim in 1684. A quarterly meeting and, later, North Carolina's first Yearly Meeting (1698) were organized at the residence of Toms.

By the first decade of the eighteenth century (and probably before that time), Perquimans Friends had erected several meetinghouses for worship. The Upper Meeting House (later Wells) was built by 1704 on land belonging to Toms. Little River Meeting House was erected on the plantation of Joseph Jordan in 1705. Lower Meeting House (later Old Neck) appeared in 1706, the same year in which Caleb Bundy asked approval of the society to construct a meetinghouse near his residence. At the end of the proprietary era, in 1729, Friends maintained meetings at Wells, Old Neck, Suttons Creek, Yeopim, and Piney Woods. Friends residing west of Little River in Perquimans were attached to the Pasquotank Monthly Meeting.

Although Quakerism spread beyond the Albemarle precincts soon after 1700, the North Carolina Yearly Meeting continued to be held in Perquimans at Old Neck Meeting House. Traveling Quaker missionaries who frequently visited Perquimans in the eighteenth century reported a thriving community of Friends. Thomas Story held a "large and comfortable" meeting in the county in 1705. In 1721 John Fothergill held "large" meetings, "solid and edifying," to which "many sober people came," "Friends and others." The famed abolitionist John Woolman made an appearance in 1746, holding "several meetings, which were large." He found "some honest hearted Friends who appeared to be concerned for the cause of Trust among a backsliding people." A decade later, William Rickett visited the Perquimans meetings at Piney Woods, Wells, Old Neck, and Little River and lodged with Thomas Nicholson.

Only by the turn of the eighteenth century did opposition to the Quakers materialize. The Church of England, or Anglican Church, envisioned by the authors of the proprietary charters and the Fundamental Constitutions as the dominant religious institution in a tolerant province, was finally made the established church of the province by legislation enacted in 1701 and again in 1703 or 1704. The statutes erected parishes, named vestries, and authorized the imposition of taxes to support the clergy. At the same time, the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel (SPG), organized by Thomas Bray and Associates in 1701, began to send missionaries to the province.

CHAPTER II.

NEWBY FAMILY.

I. JOHN NEWBY was a member of the Society of Friends, and doubtless related to the family of Newby residing at Kendal, in the County of Westmoreland, England, who were among the early converts to Quakerism, and had suffered greatly for their religious belief.* There is, however, nothing to show that he ever came to North Carolina, though his children and widow resided in Pasquotank Precinct (now county) in that province, she being then the wife of Matthew Calley, a Friend, who in his will, which was dated April 16, 1699, bequeathed to his step-daughter, Rebecca Newby, a plantation containing 100 acres on Symons Creek, which after the decease of her second husband, Robert White, she conveyed to her grandson, John Overman.† In 1696 her sister, Elizabeth Newby, is in her marriage certificate styled "daughter of John Newby and daughter-in-law of Matthew Calley."‡

Issue of John Newby and ——— ———, his wife:§

i. JOHN, whose second wife, Elizabeth, d. March 6, 1720.

ii. JAMES, SR., m., first, Sarah ———, who d. 3d mo. (May) 13, 1718.

They had issue:

1. Samuel, b. 1704.
2. Benjamin, b. 1707.
3. Ann, b. 1708.
4. James, Jr., b. 1710; m., 5th mo. (July), 1732, Naomi, dau. of Henry and Damaris White.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:
The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

C-2-1-c. Jordan White. Possibly he was the Jordan who md. Dorothy Topping in 1775. Jordan White was disowned at Perq. MM in 1778 for selling a slave. His dt. Elizabeth was listed as a granddaughter in Rachel Jones' will in 1797.

C-2-1-d. Jesse White.

C-2-1-e. James White was dismissed at Perquimans in 1784 for marrying out of the Society of Friends.

C-2-1-f. Abigail White was md. at Piney Woods MH on 1770-4-11 to Benjamin Winslow (he died between 1791 and 1794), a son of John and Esther (Snelling) Winslow. They had six known children.

C-2-1-g. Lydia White, possibly md. in 1773 to Eliab Griffin, a planter of Perquimans. An Eliab Griffin is listed in the 1790 census in Perquimans Co., with 4 males under 16 and 5 free females.

C-2-1-h. Rachel White.

C-2-1-i. Jacob White.

C-2-1-j. Benjamin White, was deceased before 1797, was dis for mcd 1780-12-6 at Perquimans MM. His wife was Christian Hollowell, dt. of John and Christian Hollowell. Two known children.

C-2-1-k. Charles White. A Charles and Mary White, together with a son Theophilus White, were listed in the will of Francis Jones in 1791. A Charles was md. (mcd) 1780-11-21 at Perquimans MM to Mary Jones, dt. of Francis Jones. This Mary Jones possibly may have been a dt. of Francis and his first wife, and would have been a step-daughter of Rachel (Jordan White) Jones, 2nd wife of Francis Jones.

C-2-2. Rachel White, born ca. 1720/22, rec. permission on 1737-1-12 at Perquimans to marry John Smith, who was called "trader" in a deed. Rachel received land from her father John White which he had purchased in 1726 from William Moore (Deed Bk. E, p 31). John Smith was dead before 1761, as Rachel was md. for the second time to Jeremiah Carmen, a weaver of Chowan Co. He is listed as Jeremiah Cannon in Perquimans MM records. In 1763 Jeremiah and Rachel were ordered to sign a deed of gift to the children of John and Rachel Smith. This they did in 1765, per Deed Book G, p 160. Children of John and Rachel (White) Smith were:

C-2-2-a. Leah Smith, b. 1738-5-31.

C-2-2-b. Joseph Smith.

C-2-2-c. Mary Smith was md. 1762-11-10 at Center MM, Guilford Co., to William Hill, b. 1740-1-31, Pasquotank Co., son of Aaron and Margaret (Chappell) Hill of Pasquotank Co. They had 10 children.

C-2-2-d. Sarah Smith was md. 1768-3-31 at a public meeting at Welles to Thomas Nixon, b. 1745-5-12, a son of Phineas and Mary (Peirce) Nixon. He died 1771-11-2 at age 27, leaving two small sons, and Sarah md. 1773-1-24 to Thomas Nicholson, a son of Christopher. Thomas Nicholson died 1780-3-4 and Sarah died 1787-5-30. They had 3 Nicholson children.

C-2-2-e. Benjamin Smith. A Benjamin was rptd. md. at Perquimans MM on 1772-7-1 to Rosanna Herman.

C-2-2-f. Rachel Smith was rptd. md. 1775-6-7 at Perquimans MM to Joseph Jordan.

C-2-2-g. Penniah/Peninah Smith was rptd. md. 1770-12-16 to Peirce Nixon, b. 1749-5-20, d. ca. 1785, a son of Phineas and Mary (Peirce) Nixon. Peninah Nixon died 1787-4-16. They had 6 known children.

C-2-2-h. John Smith.

C-2-3. Sarah White.

C-2-4. Elizabeth White was md. 1750-1-7 at the house of Thomas Newby in Perquimans, to Joseph Newby Jr., who was born ca. 1729 and died in 1752, leaving wife Elizabeth and a dt. Mary. An Elizabeth Newby was md. 1753-10-3 at Perquimans MM to Daniel Saint. This Daniel died in 1772 and an Elizabeth Saint died in 1778 or 9, leaving a son Daniel Saint, plus 2 Phelps grand-daughters and 3 dts.: Elizabeth, Gulielma and Rachel Saint. It is unclear whether this Saint information pertains to the above Elizabeth White. Daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (White) Newby was:

I-5. Joseph Toms, b. 1677-9-16, died 1679-6-6.

I-6. Caleb Toms, b. 1679-8-25 (twin), died young.

I-7. Joshua Toms, b. 1679-8-25 (twin), d. 1732, married 3 times: (1) in 1701 to Sarah Gosby, daughter of John and Hannah (Nicholson) Gosby. 4 children. (2) in 1724 to Elizabeth Charles, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Jones) Charles, and (3) in 1726 to Rebecca Jones Sutton, daughter of Peter Jones Sr., and widow of Joseph Sutton. One daughter. After her husband Joshua's death, Rebecca married in 1737 to Charles Denman (who died 1739).

Children of Francis Toms I and his 2nd wife Abigail were:

~~I-8. Abigail Toms, b. 1684-12-10, died 1687-3-17.~~

I-9. Priscilla Toms, died before 1741, was married 3 times: (1) in 1700 to John Nicholson (b. 1671-d. 1718), son of Christopher and Hannah (Rednap) Nicholson; (2) in 1711 to John Kinsey (John Kinsey's will in 1718 lists son-in-law Samuel Nicholson and dt.-in-law Mary Nicholson--the term son-in-law in those days sometimes meant step-son); (3) in 1721/2 to John Symons, son of Thomas and Rebecca Symons.

GENERATION II. FRANCIS TOMS II

Francis Toms II, son of Francis and Persillah, was born 1672-7-19 in Berkeley Precinct, N.C. and died 1729-7-12 in his 57th year at Pasquotank Co., N.C. Francis Jr. owned property called "Bear Swamp Farm," which remained in the Toms family for many years. He was married 1696-5-8 at a meeting at the house of Margaret Lawrence to Margaret Bogue Larrance/Lawrence, daughter of William and Jane Bogue, and widow of William Larrance (1661-1694). She was born about 1669 and died before 1722 in N.C. Francis Jr. was married 2nd on 1722-4-5 at Pasquotank to Rebecca Pierce, born 1680-6-9, a dt. of John and Mary (Scott) Pierce. After Francis Toms' death, Rebecca married 2nd in 1730 to William Moore, and possibly there was a third marriage to John Small Jr.

Children of Francis Toms II and his first wife Margaret were:

II-1. Mary Toms, b. 1696/7, died 1756, was married 1st on 1720-8-1 to Nathan Newby, son of Nathan and Elizabeth (Hollowell) Newby, and they had four children. Mary married 2nd on 1744-11-2 to Samuel Moore (who died 1751/2), a son of Robert Moore.

II-2. Elizabeth Toms, b. 1699-11-20, d. 1769, was married 1st 1720-12-16 to Jonathan Phelps, b. 1687-4-13, d.

1732, a son of Jonathan and Hannah Phelps, and they had four children. She was married 2nd on 1734-5-3 to Zachariah Nixon (1713-1752), son of Zachariah and Elizabeth (Symons) Nixon, and they had 3 children.

II-3. Penelope Toms, b. 1700-11-19, d. 1727-12-12, was married 1727-10-6 to Joseph Pierce, a son of Thomas and Mary Pierce. Joseph was married 2nd on 1729-2-14 to Alice _____.

II-4. Priscilla Toms, b. 1705-7-15, was married 1725-10-1 to William Jones, b. 1697-9-28, d. between 1750 and 1752, a son of Peter and Elizabeth Jones. Three children were listed in William Jones' will but no wife was mentioned.

II-5. Margaret Toms, b. 1707-12-5, died before 1743, was married 1730-10-2 to Isaac Elliott. After her death, Isaac married in 1743 to Elizabeth Morgan at the house of Caleb Elliott. Isaac died ca. 1788 and his 2nd wife Elizabeth died in 1815/16.

II-6. Pleasant Toms, b. 1710, died 1785-4-1, was married 1729-6-22 at the house of Francis Toms to Joseph Winslow, born 1705-5-31, died 1750 (will is abstracted in Hathaway, Vol. I, p. 498). Pleasant Winslow received land on Vosses Creek in the will of her father, Francis Toms. Joseph Winslow, called "planter or farmer of Perquimans," was the son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Clare) Winslow. Joseph and Pleasant had five children, all listed in their father's will in 1750.

II-7. Francis Toms III. See Generation III below.

GENERATION III. FRANCIS TOMS III

Francis Toms III, son of Francis II and Margaret (Bogue) Toms, was born between 1715 and 1718, died July 1771, Perquimans Co., and was given permission to marry on 1734-11-1 at Perquimans MM to Rebecca Nixon. She was born 1715-6-11 and is not mentioned in Francis Toms' will in 1771, so probably was deceased by then. She was a daughter of Zachariah and Elizabeth (Symons) Nixon, and is mentioned in the will of her father Zachariah Nixon in 1739. Both Francis and Rebecca were active in the Perquimans meetings; in 1729 she was recommended as a minister, and in 1743 Francis was a member of a select meeting.

Children of Francis and Rebecca (Nixon) Toms were:

III-1. Zachariah Toms (called a merchant of Perquimans, per a deed) was born 1741-4-10, and his will was probated in April of 1774. He was reported married to Margaret White on 1764-5-2. She was a daughter of William and Margaret (Scott?) White, and probably died as the wife of Thomas Jones, whom she had married 1775-6-7. In April of 1775 Margaret Toms gave one negro man to her son Francis, and also 45 lbs., to be divided equally between them, to her daughters Rebeccah, Margaret, and Elizabeth Toms. Zachariah and Margaret Toms had 5 children in all.

III-2. Rebecca Toms, born 1743-9-26, died 1806-3-22, and was reported married on 1761-1-14 to Caleb White. See Chapter IV for information on Caleb White and his family.

III-3. Mary Toms, born 1745/6-1-8, died between 1769 and 1772, was reported married to Joseph McAdams on 1769-6-7. He was a son of James and Sarah (White) McAdams of Pasquotank County. After Mary's death, Joseph married in 1772 at Pasquotank MM to Helena Elliott, who died 1777, leaving three children. In 1784 a Joseph McAdams was dismissed for mos and mcd. Joseph died 1792.

III-4. Caleb Toms, born 1747/8-2-3, died April, 1784. No further information.

III-5. Elizabeth Toms, born 1750-5-25, died 1807-5-20 (was buried at Suttons Creek, N.C.). She was reported married to Chalkley Albertson (born ca. 1750, died 1817, age 66) on 1722-2-5. They lived at Suttons Creek, N.C., and had two children, both of whom died in 1796, per p. 181 Suttons Creek MM (Hinshaw). In 1808 Chalkley Albertson was married to Mary Lamb Hollowell, widow of Thomas Hollowell. They moved to Indiana, and both of them are buried in the Blue River Hicksite Cemetery, Washington County, Indiana.

APPENDIX III

THE HENRY WHITE FAMILY

GENERATION I. HENRY WHITE

A cooper of Isle of Wight Co., Va., Henry White was born ca. 1615, probably in Va., and died in Albemarle Precinct, N.C. in 1669/70 (his will was dated then and proven in May of 1670). Henry's first wife was Rebecca (possibly Arnold), and he married second to Eleanor _____. The exact year in which Henry came to N.C. is not known, but in 1663 Henry White Senr. received a grant from Gov. Berkeley of Va. for 250 acres on the north side of Carolina River, approximately 50 miles southeast of Isle of Wight Co., Va., for transportation of five persons. At that time that area of North Carolina was under the jurisdiction of Virginia. After Henry Senior's death, his wife Eleanor married, during the 1670's, to George Taylor (who died about 1680), and she then married a Mr. Buckley. There is an Eleanor Buckly will listed in Pasquotank Co. wills, proved April 17, 1705. Henry White's children by his first wife Rebecca were:

I-1. Henry White Junior, of Little River (Pasquotank Co., N.C.), born ca. 1635 in Va., died 1712-8-3, age ca. 77 yrs., was md. first ca. 1668 to Mary (possibly Moore, widow of Henry Moore). She died in 1679, and in 1681 Henry married Damaris Page Morrison, a dt. of Isaac and Damaris (Shattuck) Page and widow of John Morrison. In 1680 Henry White had received a grant for 100 acres for transportation of John Morrison and a negro woman. Damaris Page was born ca. 1659 in Mass., and died 1722-9-12 in Pasquotank Co. Henry White Jr. also received a grant in 1663 from the Governor of Virginia for 750 acres for the transportation of 14 persons.

Henry White was one of the first members of Little River Prep. Mtg., which was one of five Friends' meetings that comprised the Pasquotank Monthly Meeting. For many years he served as recording clerk of this Quaker community and opened his home for worship, for weddings, and for the monthly meetings, where the business was conducted. He also was a Justice in the Higher Court of Pasquotank Precinct, and was the author of the oldest religious poem known to exist in N.C., written in 1698, and just discovered within the past few years. By his first wife Mary, Henry had 7 children, and his second wife Damaris was mother of 7 more children.

I-2. Arnold White (ca. 1646-1690). See Generation II for this information.

I-3. Rebecca White, born ca. 1654. No further information. This is not the Rebecca who was married to Thomas Symons, as some people say. That possibly was Rebecca West.

Children of Henry White Sr. and his 2nd wife Eleanor were:

I-4. Margaret White, b. ca. 1662, married 1679-4-24 at the house of Henry White, her brother, to Solomon Poole (b. ca. 1650 in England), son of Richard and Rebecca Poole of Middlesex in London. They had at least four children.

I-5. John White, b. ca. 1665, died ca. 1691/2, was md. 1685-1-18 to Margaret Bibing Hall Tetterton, a widow of Samuel Hall and also of William Tetterton. John White was the administrator of William Tetterton's will in 1686, and was sued by Richard Bentley with regard to Tetterton's estate. John White also served on the jury in Albemarle Co. in 1684.

I-6. Elizabeth White, b. ca. 1667, died after 1673.

I-7. Possibly Isaac White.

I-8. Possibly Robert White. A Robert White made a deposition in N.C. Higher Court records in 1690, stating that he was about 35 years of age.

GENERATION II. ARNOLD/ARNALL WHITE

Born ca. 1646, probably Isle of Wight Co., Va., he died 1690-2-23 (p. 401 of Grimes' Abstracts of N.C. Wills says 1690, March 22). His wife was Mary (possibly Pitt, per The Batchellor-Williams Family), whom he married about 1668. She died the middle of the first month, 1679. In 1680 an Arnold White was appointed guardian for Elizabeth White, orphan of Lundy White Sr. At the same court, a Lovey White was appointed guardian of Jno. White, also orphan of Lundy White Sr. This is the only reference we have found to these names, and it is not known whether there is any relationship between Arnold White and Lundy White. An Arnold White was on the Grand Jury in N.C. in 1686. Children of Arnold and Mary were:

II-1. Philemon White, born 1670-10-10.

II-2. Arnold White, Junr. (1673-1729). See Generation III below.

II-3. Paul White, born 1676-1-20.

II-4. Possibly Elizabeth White.

II-5. Possibly Henry White.

GENERATION III. ARNOLD WHITE, JR.

Born 1673-4-20 in N.C., he died in Pasquotank Co., N.C. 1729-1-30, age about 57 years. His will, dated 1729-12-24 and pr. 1730, April 14, is in the N.C. Archives, File SS 876-1722-35. He was married 1696-10-1, at the house of Henry White of Little River, to Patheny Wellson. Quaker records read "dt. of Mirall Wellson," but we believe this should be "Samuell Willson." A Samuell Willson (evidently not married) lists 5 of the children of Arnold White as "five cousins under age." He also lists a Joshua, a Mary, and a Partheny White as cousins. This will was pr. in Pasquotank Co., dtd. 7 Jan., 1719/20. His mother is also in the will, and he says father and mother John and Alice Billet are to be executors. We would guess that his mother Alice Willson had remarried to a John Billett. An Elizabeth Keith, who was a servant to Mrs. Samuel Willson, died in 1685, so we know there definitely was a Samuel Willson in Albemarle Co. in the last half of the 1600's.

Arnold White Jr. received a grant of 400 acres on the south side of Little River in October of 1704. On 1720-4-9 Arnold White was married for the second time at Little River MH to Mrs. Jane/Jean Pike, widow of Samuel Pike (who had died in Pasquotank Co. 1718-3-8). Jane's maiden name has not been found. Samuel Pike was born in London, Eng., a son of John and Emma Pike. After John Pike's death in 1681, Emma was md. 2nd, in 1683, to John Nixon and came to N.C. about 1687 with her two surviving children, Samuel and Africa Pike and daughter Ann Nixon. Emma was md. the third time ca. 1693 to Edward Mayo, Sr. She evidently died ca. 1704. Arnold White's 2nd wife Jane was not listed in his will in 1729. Children of Arnold White Jr. and his first wife Patheny were:

III-1. Paul White, b. 1687-8-6. A Paul White died in Pasquotank Co. in 1718 (per p. 125 of Hinshaw's Quaker records). On the same page (the next entry) is listed Rebecca White died 1718-11-25, so this is probably his wife. This could be either this Paul, or Paul, the son of Arnold White, Senr.

III-2. Ann White, b. 1699-10-1, was living in 1719, per Samuel Willson's will.

III-3. Joshua White, b. 1702-12-28, was living in 1719, per Samuel Willson's will.

III-4. Sarah White, b. 1704-4-7, died ca. 1744, was md. to James McAdams. He died in 1742 in Pasquotank Co.

and only the wife Sarah was listed in his will. Joshua White was the executor. Her will, dated 1744, Oct. 10, lists her brothers Joshua and Nehemiah White, who were also the executors, plus her son Joseph McAdams was to have all her estate, and also a Thomas Nicholson, friend, was a legatee.

III-5. Nehemiah White (1712-1751). See Generation IV below.

III-6. Pethenia White, b. 1716-10-6, also listed in the will of Samuel Willson in 1719.

GENERATION IV. NEHEMIAH WHITE

Born in Pasquotank Co. on 1712-12-25, he died 1751-7-5 (will proven in Pasquotank Co. in July of 1752). He was married 1732-3-18 at Little River Meeting House, to Thamer/Tamer Overman, "spinster," daughter of Charles and Ann (Symons) Overman. She evidently died shortly after the marriage, as he was married on 1734-3-2, also at Little River MH, to Martha Pritchard, b. 1712-11-11, died 1788-5-19, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah (Culpeper) Pritchard. Joseph Pritchard, Nehemiah's brother-in-law, was executor of his will in 1752. After Nehemiah's death, Martha was md. on 1753-3-1 to Joseph Overman, son of Ephraim and Sarah (Belman) Overman. Children of Nehemiah and his wife Martha:

IV-1. Benjamin White (1736-1789). See Generation V below.

IV-2. Sarah White, b. 1737-1-9. There are two Sarah Whites dismissed from Pasquotank MM for marrying out of the society, one in 1755 and one in 1765. No further information as to whether one of these might be this Sarah.

IV-3. Joshua White, b. 1739-10-1. He received land from his father in the will dated 1751. A Joshua White was dismissed for mou in 1765. Also, a Joshua White died in 1779, per will in Pasquotank Co., with wife Huldah and 10 children listed, plus a brother Benjamin White.

IV-4. Nehemiah White, b. 1742-5-6, md. Hannah Overman (per the Batchellor-Williams book). A will is listed in 1806 in Pasquotank Co. records for a Nehemiah White and wife Mary, and 4 children are listed in this will. A Nehemiah White was md. to Mary Keaton in 1791, per Pasquotank Co. marriage bonds.

IV-5. Parthenia White, born 1743/4-12-18.

IV-6. Mary White.

I connect to this line also, and originally had the same info you give above.
I was however told that she was not Rebecca WHITE, but Rebecca WEST. I don't know the primary documentation for this, but can quote from V. Mayo Bundy's book "Desc...William & Elizabeth Bundy of RI and NC"–On page 169 he says "Ann (Keaton) Bundy married 2nd on March 7, 1724 to Thomas Symons, born July 15, 1682, son of Thomas Symons born in 1648 or 1649 and Rebecca WEST who died on April 4, 1718."

I'm trying to confirm some of the WHITE information I have and hope others are also searching the same lines.

Working back from the latest White, I show REBECCA WHITE married THOMAS SYMONS abt 1677 in NC. He died 2/18/1706 in Pasquotank and I think I have a pretty good handle on the line down from there to me.

I have Rebecca b abt 1651 in Isle of Wight, VA and d. unk.

Her parents were REBECCA ARNOLD b abt 1614 Marblehead MA (?), d. abt 1662. I seriously question that info. I do show Arnolds in VA in the early years. Father was HENRY WHITE b. 1610-1615 Isle of Wight, VA. d. May 1670 in Albermarle where his will was probated.

Does anyone from that area know where this will might be on record? I don't know whether this Henry was a Quaker or whether that would make any difference on the filing of wills. I've emailed two researchers on the internet who noted this will, but received no response.

Was this the father of the Henry White who married Damaris Morison in 1680 in Pasquotank per Hinshaw or did Henry have a brother John, which I also see mentioned in Hinshaw?

Going back from Henry and Rebecca, was Henry the son of WILLIAM WHITE b. England and died 9/12/1624 in Elizabeth City, NC? I haven't found out where the researchers found the exact date. A few show the burial at Virginia City, VA. Since I see that as in eastern VA and with the Indians still very active in that area, I doubt that location, from a strictly historical standpoint unless he was killed in a recorded attack.

The big question, was this the William White who came to Jamestown in May of 1607?

So, to make a short story long, is anyone researching the WHITES, ARNOLDS, or SYMONS?

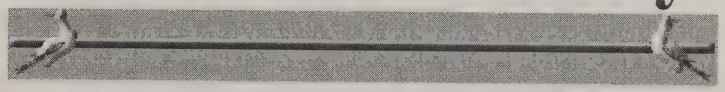

Thanks,

Sharon

ZANDRA HORN

DEAR ZANDRA,

I WAS SORTING THROUGH SOME PAPERS TODAY & WAS EMBARRASSED TO FIND THAT YOUR LETTER DATED 1 SEP 1997 HAD NOT BEEN ANSWERED. I'M TRULY SORRY ABOUT THAT.

THANK YOU FOR THE INFORMATION YOU ENCLOSED ABOUT YOUR MOON FAMILY & THEIR IN-LAWS.

MY GENEALOGICAL INFORMATION IS PRIMARILY ABOUT MY MOTHER,S WIMER/WEIMER LINE. I HAVE COPIED SEVERAL FAMILY GROUP SHEETS WHICH SHOW SILVESTER WEIMER'S ANCESTORS BACK TO VALENTINE WEIMER JR. WHO IS MY 4TH GREAT GRANDFATHER THROUGH HIS SON ADAM. I HAVE MANY FAMILY GROUP SHEETS CONCERNED WITH ADAM WEIMER'S DESCENDANTS AS WELL AS THE DESCENDANTS OF MOST OF HIS BROTHERS & SISTERS.

I SINCERELY HOPE THIS WILL BE OF SOME HELP TO YOU.

WE HAVE FRIENDS IN SANTA ROSA WHOM WE USED TO VISIT WHEN ON OUR WAY TO REDDING, CA. AND DIFFERENT PLACES IN OREGON, WHERE WE HAVE RELATIVES, BUT MY WIFE'S HEALTH PROBLEMS HAVE STOPPED US FROM TAKING THE LONG DRIVES FOR THE LAST THREE YEARS.

I HAVEN'T HAD MUCH TIME TO PURSUE GENEALOGY WORK DUE TO WORKING FULL TIME & DOING A LOT OF THE HOUSE WORK, ETC. BUT IF YOU HAVE OTHER INFORMATION YOU FEEL WOULD BE OF HELP TO ME, I WOULD BE HAPPY TO RECEIVE IT. ALSO IF YOU WOULD BE INTERESTED IN SILVESTER'S DESCENDANTS PLEASE LET ME KNOW.

SINCERELY,

Brooke J Johnson

SILVESTER WIMER (351B)

From Past & Present of Mahaska County, Iowa (printed 1906) page 514, Prairie Twp.:

Silvester Wimer, born in Licking County, Ohio, Jan. 26, 1845 son of Adam & Jemima (Godfrey) Wimer. Adam was born in Penn. on July 12, 1813 & died in Ohio on July 16, 1848. The Mother was born in Ohio & died in Keokuk County, Iowa when Silvester was 13 years of age. His father was a carpenter. His Mother moved to Indiana & in 1856 to Keokuk County, Iowa. She married J. O. C. Wimer, a cousin of her first husband (J.O.C. later married Nancy Bryant). Jemima died in September 1858. By her first marriage she had 2 sons, Silvester & Amos, who was born on June 1, 1838. He was killed at the battle of Shiloah. By second marriage she had two children, both died at ages 6 & 3. Silvester enlisted in the 23rd Iowa Inf. and was rejected on size & age. Later he served in the 7th Calvalry. After the war he went to Jasper County, Iowa where he married Barbara Moon of Lynn Grove Township on Sept. 1, 1869. They moved to Mahaska County in 1893. Their children were Roberta, Avis, Perry Co., J.B., Louva M., Hoyt S. and two died. Mr. Wimer was first a Quaker & then a Methodist.

Adam imer was born in Pennsylvania July 12, 1813. Married Jerima Godfrey July 26, 1838. Died in Ohio, 1-26-1845. Their children: Amos was born June 1, 1839. He enlisted as a member of Company E., Second Iowa Volunteer Infantry, at the time of the Civil War, became orderly sergeant and was killed at the battle of Shiloh, April 6, 1862. Silvester imer was born in Licking County, Ohio, Jan. 26, 1845 and died at New Sharon, Iowa, Aug. 13, 1919.

Silvester did not remember ever seeing his father, but learned that he was a carpenter, working at his trade throughout his business life. Following the death of her husband, Jerima moved to Indiana to 80 acres of unimproved land Adam had purchased before his death. She had a log house put up, the logs being cut near the place they built the house. It was in heavy timber. For two years she supported herself and the children by spinning, weaving and sewing. She was a tailoress. She learned the trade from her brother who was a tailor, having worked in New Orleans. She cut by measure and made mens clothing, as they could not be bought ready made in those days. In 1856 she came to Iowa settling in Keokuk County where she had married J.O.C. imer, a cousin of her first husband, on Dec. 21, 1852. There were two children born of the mother's second marriage. One child died at the age of six years and the other when but three years of age. Jerima died on Sept. 4, 1858 in Keokuk County, Iowa.

her son Byron upon the old homestead farm in Spring Creek township.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Crozier have been born eight children, of whom one died in infancy, while Mrs. Nellie McIntyre passed away at the age of thirty-three years, leaving three children, Lucile, Edith and John McIntyre. The oldest living member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Crozier is William H., who is married and resides upon a farm adjoining the old home place. He married Lillie B. Zaring and they have one child, Ralph W. Catherine is now in Des Moines, Iowa. Lester S. was in the Spanish-American war, enlisting at Blue Earth, Minnesota, July 1, 1898, under Captain I. C. Chase and Colonel Joseph Bobleter in Company M, Twelfth Minnesota Infantry. He was mustered out September 3, 1898, by order of the secretary of war, and discharged at Chickamauga, November 5. For twenty-eight days he was ill in the hospital at Lexington. For fifteen years he has spent much time in travel, visiting twenty-three states of the Union. Harry P. assists in managing the farm. Elsie Iowa is attending school in Des Moines.

Mr. and Mrs. Crozier attend the Union church at Wright, but are members of the Union Presbyterian church at White Oak. The nearness of the former, however, causes them to join the Sunday worship there. Politically Mr. Crozier is a stalwart republican, having given his support to the party continuously since casting his first presidential ballot for Abraham Lincoln. He has been a school treasurer for thirty-three years, but has never sought nor cared for political office, finding incentive for his best effort in his business interests. His son Harry P., has attended the State Agricultural College at Ames and is a believer in scientific farming. They devote considerable attention to stock and their land is all valuable and productive. Mr. Crozier has a beautiful home, supplied with all modern equipments and conveniences, and surrounded by a well kept lawn and ornamental shade trees. Few of the Civil war veterans are so well preserved as he. He and his wife are both in excellent health and happy in the environments of a comfortable home and the companionship of their children. His business interests have been carefully conducted and he is now one of the prosperous agriculturists of the community.

Their children were my scholar in 1885 - O.K.S

SILVESTER WIMER.

Silvester Wimer is the owner of four hundred and eighty acres of land in Prairie township constituting one of the best improved farms in his portion of the county. It is equipped with all modern conveniences and accessories and the owner is justly accounted a progressive agriculturist, deserving much credit for the success he has achieved. He was born in Licking county, Ohio, January 26, 1845, a son of Adam and Jemima (Godfrey) Wimer. The father was born in Pennsylvania, July 12, 1813, and died in Ohio, July 16, 1848. The mother was born in Ohio and died in Keokuk county, Iowa, when Silvester Wimer was a youth of thirteen years. Mr. Wimer does not remember ever seeing his father, but has learned that he was a carpenter, working at his trade throughout his business life. Following his death the mother removed to Indiana, where she lived until 1856, when she came to Iowa, settling in Keokuk county. She had married J. O. C. Wimer, a cousin of her first husband, and her death occurred in Keokuk county, September 4, 1858. There were two sons of the first marriage, the brother of our subject being Amos Wimer, who was born June 1, 1838. He enlisted as a member of Company E, Second Iowa Volunteer Infantry, at the time of the Civil war, became orderly sergeant and was killed at the battle of Shiloh. There were two chil dren born of the mother's second marriage, but one died at the age of six years, and the other when but three years old.

Silvester Wimer was a lad of only thirteen years at the time of his mother's death, and he then went to work to provide for his own living, receiving for the first year only his board and clothes, while the second year he was paid a wage of thirty dollars in addition to his board and clothing. He afterward worked as a farm hand by the month until he enlisted for service in defense of the Union, when but eighteen years of age, joining the Thirty-third Iowa Infantry, but was rejected on account of age and size, afterward became a member of the Seventh Iowa Cavalry. He participated in a number of battles and skirmishes and had some narrow escapes. Once his horse was shot from under him and on another occasion he had just dismounted from his horse when it was shot. The regiment operated in the west and upon the expiration of his term of service Mr. Wimer was discharged at Omaha, Nebraska, December 25, 1865, having made a creditable military record and displayed valor and loyalty equal to that of many a veteran of twice his years.

When the war was over Mr. Wimer returned to Keokuk county, Iowa, where he worked as a farm hand until January, 1868, when with the money that he had saved from his own earnings he purchased one hundred and sixty acres of wild prairie land in Linngrove township, Jasper county, Iowa. On the 1st of September, 1869, he was married to Barbara Moon, who was born in Lee county, Iowa, May 7, 1847, a daughter of Jeremiah and Rachel (Nixon) Moon. She was, however, left an orphan when but twelve years of age and was teaching school in Linngrove township when she met Mr. Wimer. When they were married they had two trunks and a box of goods, but not a lamp nor stove nor other household furnishings. They boarded while a house was being built on their new farm and when it was completed they slept on the floor and ate off a dry goods box until furniture could be secured. Mr. Wimer worked for others for the use of an ox-team with which to break his ground. He later bought a team and tools, built a better house and added eighty acres to his farm, upon which he reared his family and made his home until 1893, when he sold that property and came to Prairie township, Mahaska county, where he purchased three hundred and twenty acres of good land, all improved with fair buildings. He has remodeled the house and now has a large residence of eleven rooms, well painted and tastefully furnished. He has built granaries, barns, sheds and fences and indeed has one of the best farms in the township. He has since added to the property until he now has four hundred and eighty acres of valuable and productive land in this county. Mr. Wimer now buys considerable corn and is extensively engaged in feeding cattle and hogs. He also has a nice peach and plum orchard upon his place, and in fact, all of the modern equipments and accessories of a model farm are found here. He has added two hundred and forty acres in Monroe township, also owns one hundred and sixty acres in Oklahoma.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Wimer have been born eight children, of whom six are living: A. Roberta, who is practicing osteopathy at Seattle, Washington, taught school for a number of years. She attended school at Shenandoah, at Chicago and at Des Moines, Iowa, and is a graduate of the College of Osteopathy at Des Moines. Avis F. is married and resides in Hastings, Nebraska. Perry C., who married Jessie Holton and lives upon one of his father's farms, is a graduate of two undertaking schools, but prefers to give his attention to agricultural pursuits rather than to the undertaking business. B. J. married Jennie Roovart and lives upon a part of his father's farm. Louva M. was married January 31, 1906, to Leonard Roovart and they reside upon a farm near Lacey, Iowa. Hoyt S. is attending school in New Sharon. The last named is his father's main standby in the farm work. He has a bank account of his own, does business on his own accord and also for his father. He attends sales and his bid is recognized the same as that of a grown man, although he is only sixteen years of age. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Wimer were born two children, who died in infancy.

Mr. Wimer and his family were formerly identified with the Society of Friends but now attend the Methodist Episcopal church. He has always been a republican but has never held office. He and his wife have worked very earnestly and indefatigably in order to attain the success which they now enjoy. Mrs. Wimer has raised chickens and through their sale and that of the eggs she has secured a goodly sum of money, her books showing that she has taken in more than thirty-nine hundred dollars in this way. During all of their married life they have never contracted but one store debt and that to the amount of only ten dollars. This is certainly a creditable record. They are pleasant, genial people, who have given their children good educational advantages and provided them also with musical training. Mr. Wimer is a strictly temperate man, who has never used tobacco nor liquor in any form and his life record displays many sterling traits of character, including honesty and industry—qualities that in every land and clime command respect and good will.

A. BROWNELLER.

The farming interests of Mahaska county find a worthy representative in A. Browneller, who, living on section 6, Spring Creek township, is actively and successfully carrying on general agricultural pursuits. He owns and operates a neat and well improved farm of one hundred and ten acres situated only two and a half miles from Oskaloosa, so that the advantages of city life are easily attainable, while those of country life are constantly enjoyed by the family. His residence in the state covers the period from 1882 to the present time.

Mr. Browneller was born in Fayette county, Pennsylvania, on the 24th of October, 1847. His father, Samuel Browneller, was born in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, in 1815, while the grandfather, Frederick Browneller, was a native of Germany and became an early resident of the Keystone state. Samuel Browneller was reared to manhood in Lancaster and Fayette counties, Pennsylvania, and in the latter was married to Sarah Slaughterbach, whose birth occurred in Lancaster county. Mr. Browneller followed farming in Fayette county and there reared his family, continuing his residence there up to the time of his death, which occurred about 1896. His wife passed away in 1895.

A. Browneller of this review was the youngest of the family of five sons and three daughters, all of whom reached adult age with the exception of the eldest son, who died at the age of five years. The others are all yet living. Mr. Browneller of this review remained a resident of Pennsylvania through the period of his boyhood and youth, spending his days upon his father's farm and attending the public schools. When a young man he went to Ohio, where he worked at the carpenter's trade. Subsequently he made his way westward to Kansas, settling in Topeka, where he worked for six years for the Santa Fe Railroad Company, being employed in the shops for two years and upon the road for four years, making his home throughout that entire time in Topeka.

Mr. Browneller was married in that city in November, 1880, to Miss Emma Arthur, who was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, and there spent her girlhood, while in the public schools she was educated. She is the only child of

The Hayne Family of South Carolina

Dr. Henry Woodward

This is the man I'm writing a book about. He was the First Settler to South Carolina.

DR. HENRY WOODWARD, THE FIRST ENGLISH SETTLER IN SOUTH CAROLINA, AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

By Joseph W. Barnwell.

Woodward.

Henry Woodward (about 1646-about 1686) -m- Mary Godfrey (d. after 1686)

In 1666 Henry was the ship's doctor on Robert Sandford's ship which was exploring the SC coast with a commission from the Lords Proprietors. At St. Helena Island, one of the Cusabo Indians asked to sail with Sandford. Henry volunteered to stay with the Indians to learn their language. After 6 months, Henry wrote to a Spanish priest who was nearby saying that he had been left with the Indians and wanted to be rescued. In this letter he says he is a native of London. The Spanish commented that the letter was written in "good latin". A Spanish ship came from St. Augustine to rescue him. The captain reports that Henry is NOT a Catholic and "might not even be a Christian". He was put in the jail in St. Augustine when the ship arrived. The Spanish priests got him out of jail so he could act as an interpreter between them and the Indians.

Robert Searles, the privateer, attacked and laid waste to St. Augustine and Henry managed to escape on his ship. After several years with the pirates of the Carribbean Henry was shipwrecked on Nevis Island. The first ships coming to found the colony at Charles Towne put in at Nevis for supplies. They write that they found "one Henry Woodward who was in the process of building a ship to come to England...He has joined our expedition."

The colonists never seemed to trust him because he had been picked up as a hitch-hiker. He did marry the daughter of the most powerful council member, John Godfrey. He made the treaties and set up the system of trading with the Indians for fur. He negotiated for food when the colonists were hungry. At one point he was fined $500 pounds for some offense. He went to England to plead his case with Lord Ashley and came back with a grant for 2,000 acres of land and a demand that his fine be repaid by the council. He chose James Island according to the record.

He was jailed by the Scots at Stuart Town for trespassing. A posse came from Charles Towne to effect his release and they found the Scots too ill from a fever to fight. Henry apparently contracted that fever. He became ill while trading with the Indians. The record says that 150 Indians marched 10 days carrying Henry on a litter to bring him back to Charles Towne. The drawbridge was opened and the procession marched through town, depositing Henry with his family.

Henry's life is well documented. His letters to John Locke detail the culture of the Indians he lived with. He wrote an account of a trip to visit the Westo tribe.

Mary remarried a Davis after Henry's death.

Hello Zandra,

Have been busy harvesting our strawberry crop, so, sorry for the delay. I found the 1895 Jefferson Co. Kansas census records for Charles Worth (age 26), Anna (age 20) and Abbie (age 13). I tried to find the Worth family in any other record that would help define how long they lived in Jefferson Co.
There are school census records for years 1889 and 1897 that have no listing for any Abbie Worth--- on which she should have been listed if they lived in Jefferson Co. during those years. There is no record of any Worth on the 1885 Jefferson Co. census nor any probate record for surname Worth. Found no record of death for Worth surname, so if Anna died in Jefferson Co. in 1895, we've found no record of her death.

The Gen. Soc. files obits for persons whose death was reported in Jefferson
Co., but we find no obit or death notice in the Perry & Oskaloosa newspapers
(Both newspapers have been read for all death notices.)

From the above, it would appear that the Charles Worth family did not live in Jefferson Co. for very long.

Let me know if you think of anything else I should be checking.

Richard Wellman

Subject: [RAOGK-Req] Kansas Jefferson

Hello Richard

I am not sure if you might ba able to find anything on the request I have. Thought I would ask and see if you might be able to pull something out of thin air for me.

Beckner, Ann
born: about 1874 Hardin County IA married: about 1893 (just a guess for now) to Charles Worth died: about 11 Nov 1895 birth date for son Robert B. on this date

Found Charles and Anna Worth on the 1895 State Census, for Kaw Jefferson County MO.

The Anna that you found married to Charles in the 1895 Kansas census was born in Iowa. In the 1880 census there is an Anna Beckner living in Iowa who is the right age. Since Robert Blaine Worth listed his mother's maiden name as Beckner in his CA death information, I am sure that it is him and that is his mother and therefore he was born 11 Nov 1895 in Grantville, Jefferson, KS

Just recently find them living in 1895 in Jefferson County KS. In 1900 Charles and family where living in Carbon County UT. In 1903 Charles and wife, Carey got a divorce there in Denver. Found Charles on the old age pension records for Denver in 1933.
